PATTULLO SUMMARIZES FIGHT OF OPPOSITION

T. D. Pattullo, at the Chamber of Commerce meeting at Victoria, summarized as follows the fight the Liberal Opposition put up at the last session of the British Columbia Legislature:

"We fought against unjustifiable expenditures.

"We fought against increase of taxation.

"We fought against the depriving of municipalities of their proper share of motor license fees and liquor profits.

"We fought against appointment of partizan commissions." "We fought against the withholding of reports of commissions and auditors.

"We fought against ruthless dismissal of tried and honorable public servants, and fastening of the stigma of dishonor upon some of them. "We fought against appointments to office of incompetent partizans.

Daily Train Service Coming Into Effect This Year, May 19

No. 5 Will Arrive From East at 12:30 Noon and No. 6 Will Leave at 1 p.m. Six Days a Week

Embodying changes in time of arrival and departure which have been previously suggested, the daily train service on this line of the Canadian National Railways will become effective on May 19, it is officially announced. On and after that date, train No. 5 from the east will arrive here at 12:30 noon daily except Tuesday and train No. 6 will leave for the east at 1 p.m. daily except Sunday. The earlier arrival of trains from the east and the later departure of trains for the east will give tourist passengers connecting with company vessels longer stopovers at Prince Rupert, something which has been sought for a long time by local interests.
