Interesting Debate Staged By Members of Toc H. at Meeting Last Night

An interesting debate was held by Toc H. at its regular weekly few days. meeting last night on the subject! of whether or not Prince Rupert is really the logical railway outlet for the Peace River country. The difficulties and advantages of the various routes were cleverly outlined by the speakers and, at the conclusion, it was decided by a narthe cause of Prince Rupert had Charlotte City.

The advocates in favor of Prince Rupert were Ian Fraser and J. D. Allen, while those in opposition remain until Monday at Skidegate were A. Bradshaw and Dr. W. S. Mission on official business. Aspinall. .

The judges, whose task was not an easy one, were Ald. P. H. Linzey and Thomas Andrew.
