Major Gibson Figures Largely in Recent Issue of "Resources."

Among the interesting articles in "Resources" this month is one under the title "Major Gibson at the Front." It is accompanied by a full illustration of the major and other local men taken just after Festubert. The major had fought for the United States in the Philippines and when war broke out with Germany he was one of the first to leave here. This is how Resources tells of his reason for going:

"When Prince Rupert was in the stump stage of evolution the major landed here, and was soon known and liked by everyone as he is now. When war broke out in Europe he felt that he must go to fight for his country. But, a matter of a decade before he had been fighting for another country! To some people that may seem a little curious, so an old friend questioned him on the point since his return. He blushed prettily and hesitatingly said:

"Oh, I believe I just felt the same urge as the other Britishers, the rank and file of them I mean. It wasn't a matter of Belgium so much. It was just a deep down feeling that they wouldn't be made slaves of by the Huns without putting up a fight. That's all there was to it."

Manager Kid Gleason of the Chicago White Sox is not wasting any time in signing up his players for next year. He has already made a contract with Dickie Kerr to remain on the Chicago team but Dickie wasn't so easy to get this year and Gleason had to show him a good piece of money before signing. A hero in the World's Series has to be paid for.

Two of the big league stars became managers during the last season and it did not affect their efficiency as players either. Tris Speaker, king pin batter, became manager of the Cleveland Indians in the middle of the season and ended up with an average of over .300. Gavy Cravath became manager of the Philadelphia Nationals in mid-season and ended up with a .340 average.

In the National Rifle Association's recent shoots in England the Canadian marksmen took six prizes out of a total of 223. The hope was expressed by all the officials of the competition that next year Canada would revive that larger teams would be sent. The prizes were won as follows: Great Britain, 45; Australia, 49; New Zealand, 9; South Africa, 10; and Canada 6.

Lloyd Cook, whom Edmonton claims as her star, has been appointed manager of the Vancouver Millionaires. Frank Patriek, who has been manager of the Vancouver team since its organization finds that he is getting rushed, so he has decided to take over the business end of the team while Cook will supervise the players. Cook has had a long experience in the puck-chasing game and played in Edmonton in 1915 when the Patricks brought him to the coast where he became a star. He went to Spokane for a season and then went back to the Terminals as captain. The selection will be popular with the Vancouver players as well as with all the other teams in the P.C.H.A.

On the evening of November 20th in the Empire Theatre at Edmonton, Eddie Fingard and Frank Barrieau, claimants for the Canadian Lightweight Championship will meet in the first of a series of elimination fights for the Dominion title. Both Fingard and Barrieau are now in Edmonton completing training.

Captain and Mrs. Mastin arrived in Prince Rupert on Thursday night and are taking charge of the Salvation Army work here. Their welcome service will be held in the Army citadel on Sunday evening at 7:30, the subject being "Standing on the Rock." Doubtless there will be a large attendance on that occasion as everyone is invited.

Corporal Tommy Ross, who the D.C.M. at Mons in 1915, has just received his decoration. He served overseas four years and is now back home firing on the G.T.P. Railway.

Home, Sweet Home

A wanderer stood in the darkened street, looking through the window at a happy family within. The scene pictured the longing in his soul for the home he did not have.

The man slipped away unseen, and one day wrote a song—the song of his soul. And this song became immortal; the most beautiful and pathetic heart-song that the world has ever known.

The man was John Howard Payne, and the song is "Home, Sweet Home."

You may RE-CREATE in your own home this immortal song if you own
