Empire Free Trade is Great Ideal Although Not Practical Policy

No Responsible Statesman Could Promise It to Country, Former Premier Declares

LONDON, Feb. 25:--"I hold Empire free trade as an ideal for which every Conservative should work but, as a practical policy today, it is impossible," Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, said in a statement yesterday in expressing officially the attitude of his party toward the new United Empire party of Lord Beaverbrook. "No responsible statesman," he said, "could go to the country and tell the electorate it would be introduced if he were returned to power. It cannot be done. The Dominions will not have it," Mr. Baldwin declared.
