wedding cake. Silver sconces held pink candlesticks.

Miss Jean Harrison R.N., lady superintendent, received the guests. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre embarked aboard the Prince George for Vancouver where they will reside. A large assemblage of friends gathered at the wharf as the steamer pulled out to give TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY the bridal couple an enthusiastic farewell.

The bride's going away costume consisted of a handsome ensemble in a new shade of brown satin with hat, footwear and purse to match.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre are well kown and popular in Prince Rupert. The bride has been a memher of the nursing staff of the Prince Rupert General Hospital for three years. The groom is chief officer of the steamer Prince George and has navigated out of this port with the Canadian National Steamships for the past ten years.

Jack Fetherstonehaugh, formerly a resident of Prince Rupert, who has been spending the summer on the Queen Charlotte Islands scaling timber for the forestry department, left last night for his home in Vancouver.
