PRICES TO ADVANCE

A number of local merchants have been notified by the importers in the east that, as a result of the new tariff the which speeches and story telling Two applications for advertising, price of woolen goods will advance at the beginning of the was the order with F. W. Hart as one from the Commerce of the Nanew year. Most of these goods are made in Britain and chairman. Community singing fol- tion and the other from the Prince they are bound to cost more with the tariff up against that country.

In view of this it is pointed out that the present is the best time to buy woolens. There are many people offering low prices on these goods in Prince Rupert and it would be well to look these over well and make a selection before the Christmas rush begins.

GET WORK DONE NOW

One way of keeping Prince Rupert prosperous and avoiding the stigma of a big unemployment list would be Kinley for a few remarks, Mr. Mc- partment. It will be shown to Mr. for Prince Rupert people to get as many repairs made as possible this fall. There are innumerable jobs that need attention. # RIGHT TO SECEDE

In the United States the southern states thought they had the right to secede and form a separate nation but the northern states decided that they could not and a terrible war followed, the effects of which are only now beginning to disappear.

Premier Macdonald suggests that any Dominion has the right to secede from the British Empire if it wishes to do Baptist Brotherhood Hears Impresso. That is possibly true but emphasizing it does not make for the solidarity of the Empire or tend to make the units work together. It is not wise to talk about seceisson. Evidently Macdonald's statement is being challenged in many quarters.

sive Address By Former Attorney General

The Baptist Brotherhood opened its winter session last night by hearing a powerful address by A. M. Manson K.C. Mr. Manson drew a word picture of a country which had set the torch to all of its churches, the havoc which resulted, and the final decision to re-establish the Christian Church in the community as the only prop of civilization. Mr. Manson's address made R. W. Riley, Terrace, B.C. a profound impression upon every & General Store, Anyox. man present.

Chamber of Commerce Disposes of Number of Matters at Quarterly Meeting

The regular quarterly dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce took place last night with President G. P. Tinker presiding. A number of matters of business were disposed of and the president at the close gave an interesting resume of his visit to Prince George where he attended the convention of the Central British Columbia municipalities.

Mr. Tinker spoke appreciatively of the manner in which the delegates had been entertained at Prince George and of the harmony which prevailed at the gathering. # Do You Play Bridge

THE chap who overbids his hand always loses in the long run. No person can continually bid what he hasn't got and make it.

Business in one way is something like a game of bridge with merchants and manufacturers playing for your patronage. You want furniture and breakfast foods, books and clothes, radios, cigarettes and toys, groceries, fruits, vegetables, etc.—they want to sell you theirs. They bid with advertising.

The merchant who advertises an unworthy product can't win. He is simply inducing more people to find out in a shorter time how poor it is. He is overbidding his hand, and is bound to get set. Losing is too costly . . . depend upon it, products that are advertised must be good!

The advertisements in this newspaper are guides to the finest merchandise of every sort, merchandise carefully and faithfully made, of certain, honest value. You can trust the manufacturers who write them.

> It pays to read the advertisements. They are bids backed by products that can compete in the open . . . and win.
