POR THE PERSON

How a warm room and "B.O." cost her another admirer

TAST NIGHT when they skated together I in the park, she had seemed so attractive. But here in the close, warm room her charm completely vanished.

She felt his coolness. The same old story. Why did she always attract men -but never hold them? It had happened so often.

But not now! Today she makes friends and keeps them. For she discovered her fault and the simple way to correct it. Let her tell you how.

"I could have cried when my uncle, who is a physician, warned me in an indirect way about 'B.O.'-body odour. For I thought I had been so careful.

"But, as he explained, our pores are constantly giving off odour-causing waste—as much as a quart daily. We're so used to this familiar odour that we don't notice it in ourselves. But others do-especially in an overheated room with windows closed. And it always offends.

"So now I've adopted this simple precaution. I wash and bathe with Lifebuoy—and I love it! Lifebuoy makes me feel so gloriously fresh and clean—so safe. For its rich, creamy antiseptic lather purifies pores-banishes every trace of 'B.O.'" Lifebuoy is a marvellous complexion soap. Its gentle, searching lather clears away all impurities from the pores. Dull skins freshen. Complexions fairly glow with clear, healthy, radiant beauty. Its pleasant, extra-clean scent-that vanishes as you rinse-just tells you Lifebuoy purifies. Adopt Lifebuoy today.

Rock at Lumber Assembly Wharf

On the lumber assembly wharf here is lying a large and ancient native carved rock which is said to be one of the most elaborate on the coast. It was secured about a year ago on Portland Canal and has since been in the hands of Canon W. F. Rushbrook, chairman of the local museum board.

The rock is rather weather beaten and the characters do not show up very plainly, particularly for photo taking, unless it is brushed
