NEED OF REPRESENTATION

In view of the condition under which Vancouver candidates for Parliament are urging the building of the Peace River outlet to Vancouver, it is of particular importance to Prince Rupert and the whole of Skeena district that a government supporter be returned for the constituency so that we may get at least an even break here.

As we have pointed out before, Olof Hanson has a way of getting things. He learned how to do it in connection with his own business. Now he will be out to get Prince Rupert placed on the map as the western outlet to the Peace River grain growing country. That is one reason why Mr. Hanson should be elected to represent Skeena.

ELECTION FORECASTS

Many of those not directly interested in the outcome of the election are trying to figure out what the result is likely to be. Bank managers seem to think the Liberals may possibly lose a few seats but not enough to affect the government.

The Financial Post has secured two forecasts from Ottawa, one from Conservatives and the other from Liberals. While the Conservatives say they think they will make gains, these will not be sufficient to give them a working majority. The Liberals say they will make a net gain of 11 seats making them that much stronger than they are today.

Conservative		Liberal
Nova Scotia	no change	Nova Scotia	5 gains
New Brunswick	2 gains	New Brunswick	1 gain
P. E. I.	1 gain	P. E. I.	no change
Quebec	no change	Quebec	2 gains
Ontario	12 gains	Ontario	2 gains
Manitoba	6 gains	Manitoba	no change
Saskatchewan	7 gains	Saskatchewan	3 losses
Alberta	4 gains	Alberta	no change
British Columbia	no change	British Columbia	4 gains

TORY FLUB-DUB

Dear Mr. Editor:
I have been much amused with the Tory inconsistencies in this campaign.

Mr. Bennett and his faint echo Mr. Brady have been telling the people of Canada that their country is not only unprosperous but that it is on the verge of financial ruin by reason of the fiscal policies of the Mackenzie King Government.

The Tory newspapers, on the other hand, are all arguing that the Liberal Government has no right to take the credit for the wonderful era of prosperity through which Canada has been passing and in which she has become one of the leading manufacturing countries of the world.

Which then is right, blue ruin or prosperity?
Mr. Bennett and the other Tory speakers hope by much noise to drown the voice of the financial papers and the banks of Canada who are proclaiming that we are the most prosperous nation in the world today.

The Tory Concert must surely think the electors lack ordinary common sense and intelligence.

Thanking you for the space.
LONG-SUFFERING-ELECTOR.

Man in the Moon

This is the time for serious thought, not for jokes and jollity. There is a political campaign on hand.

Let's blow the trumpet louder
And summon the faithful few
To hold the country back in leash
Away from all that's new.
Let us all old things conserve,
Ponder them o'er and o'er,
And refuse to bend to Liberal thought
Both today and evermore.

Political orator: "I venture to assert there is not a man in this audience who has ever done anything to prevent the destruction of our vast forests."
Small man in audience (timidly): "I've shot woodpeckers."

Jake says he's going to vote for the man that seems to have the most intelligence and not for the man that talks the most or smokes the most or who cracks the most jokes.

Voter's Prayer

Lord help me to pick a winner
So my vote I may not lose
Now which, O Lord, if you were me
Would be the one that you would choose?

The meanest politician
In this old world of ours
Is the one who gives away the leaves
And holds on to the flowers.

About this trap a man has invented to catch and hold burglars—a pty it wouldn't grab wild election promises, and the politicians who make them.

TEMBLORS ARE FELT

Dispatch From Queen Charlotte Islands Confirms Report Made By Local Citizens

SKIDEGATE, July 3.—At 9:10 last Thursday evening, a severe earthquake shock was felt on the Queen Charlotte Islands and at 5:20 on Monday another more-severe tremor was perceived. A few seconds before the latter quake was felt, there was a long deep rumble which was followed by several heavy jolts, one after the other.

Certain citizens of Prince Rupert asserted that they felt an earthquake last Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock but, as one was not reported at the Digby Island meteorological station, no mention was made of it in the press.
