Stanley Baldwin Makes Effort to Rally Discordant Elements In His Party

LONDON, Oct. 16:-Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, in an open letter to Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, chairman of the Conservative party, last night urged the immediate application of "an emergency tariff on manufactured goods which would preserve the home market." Experienced politicians accepted the letter as an effort by Mr. Baldwin to rally discontented elements in his party under one standard and to build a platform upon which Conservatives might fight the coming general election.

Bennett Is Hopeful As to Conference Outcome Expresses Warning

Fears That If Canadian Offer Is Rejected, Opportunity For Closer Empire Economic Relationship May Not Come Again

LONDON, Oct. 16:-To numberless thousands, Premier R. B. Bennett last night gave a message of hope and confidence in a trans-Atlantic broadcast to the citizens of Canada. It was a message which had its note of warning. The Canadian Premier was confident that a great plan of economic co-operation could be made effective and he thought the dark days of anxiety, were passed. Canada, said Mr. Bennett, believed that it was in her own I ACIIIG BY interests and the interests of the Empire that closer Empire trade relationship should be established. Canada, he said, had suggested in the present Imperial Conference a plan by which this might be brought about. Then the Premier added: "I shall not refer to the reception our proposal has received. In the near future it will be either accepted or recision. It will be a momentous one for I believe and believing I consider it my duty to say that if this opportunity for closer economic relationship is not seized, it may not days ahead of Kingsford-Smith, the come again.
