Congestion at Stewart Wharf to Be Regulated-Mining Law Amendments

STEWART, Sept. 10:-With the vice-president, Howard Campbell, in the chair, the Stewart Board of Trade ran through a long agenda of business at the regular meeting last Tuesday evening. A matter which aroused considerable discussion was the traffic condition at the Stewart dock on boat nights and, as the general opinion was that taxis shoul have preference over private cars, the board is taking steps to have this situation better controlled. At the same time a committee will look into the matter of speeding on the Stewart-Hyder road and endeavor to have all motorists drive in compliance with the speed laws.

Several changes in the mining laws, which the board has been advocating for some time, also came ip for discussion, and a committee consisting of Messrs. Rolston, Apolewhaite and Tooth was appointed to put these into shape for submision to a future meeting of the board, together with suggestions for procedure in submitting them to the government in time for the next litting of the provincial legislature.

An invitation was extended to R. . McNaughton, district passenger agent for the C. N. R. at Prince Rueveral days in the district. It was also decided to have official repreentatives of the board meet all inoming passenger steamers with a iew to assisting visitors with inormation, etc. W. S. Orr and Hector Stewart were asked to take on this

In view of the conflict between $50 to the Blakeburn Relief Fund. the two industries, the Water Controller allowed the fisheries interests six weeks in which to file additional data.

The power project is a far-reaching one. It is designed to serve not only the town of Stewart but all the mines tributary to it which are now dependent on inadequate equipment. A dam would be installed on the Meziaden River to raise the Meziaden Lake 20 feet but the fisheries interests declared that not only would the salmon run be haited, but the spawning grounds middle destroyed.

The Federal and Provincial fisheries departments and the canning inverests associated themselves with the objection.

Have you ever considered what advertised goods mean to you? How many actual shopping hours you save in a year just by knowing what you want before you go to buy?

And more than that—you know just what you're getting. You ask for things by brand name with confidence, for you're sure they'll be the same today as they were yesterday, or last month. Advertisers must maintain standard quality in their products; their advertisements must be your guarantee of reliability. They cannot afford to advertise poor or uneven merchandise.

Read the advertisements regularly. The time you spend in doing so will be regained many times over when it comes to buying. To say nothing of the satisfaction of having perfect confidence in what you purchase.
