Pioneer Hospitals The superintendents of the hospitals at Hazelton and Bella Bella are well known throughout British Columbia. At Hazelton Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A., has pioneered in this work and still directs the affairs at the hospital. This year a new building will be erected in which the Dominion and provincial governments, as well as the United Church of Canada, have a part. At Bella Bella Dr. George E. Indian Missions

There are fourteen missions to Indians within the bounds of the presbytery, the principal of which are Port Simpson, Bella Bella, Port Essington, Bella Coola and Kitamaat. The pioneer work of the late Dr. Thomas Crosby reads like a romance of modern missions and the story of his life has been an Inspiration to many

In the Yukon Territory there are stations at Dawson and Whitehorse, but owing to the redistribution of population only one minister, Rev. W. B. McIntosh, remains in the North this summer. In British Columbia there are ministers at Anyox, Stewart, Prince Rupert, Prince Rupert East, Terrace. Hazelton and Ocean Falls. Besides these there are missions to the Orientals at various points, with a settled Japanese pastor at Ocean
