United Church Young People

Varied Entertainment Enjoyed at Meeting Last Night

The Young People's Society of the First United Church held its first regular meeting in the parlors of the church last evening with about thirty young people present.

After the regular business of the evening, the literary committee put on a short Christmas scene. The room was in darkness but for a bon-fire which was lighted on the platform and at which Bruce Stevens sat, dressed as an Arab. He gave a Christmas reading and during the course of it a few of the members sang Christmas Carols from behind the scene.

Following this golf, played on a nine-hole course made by the athletic committee, was enjoyed and volley ball and table tennis were also played.

The meeting came to a close at 10:30 with the serving of doughnuts and coffee.
