ANYOX GREETES LIBERAL SPEAKERS

Pattullo and Pearson Given Fine Reception at Smelter Town Meet

Great Enthusiasm Expressed For Cause of Mackenzie King Given in Appeal For Re-Election

ANYOX, June 28.—A rousing reception was given T. D. Pattullo, leader of the British Columbia Opposition, and George S. Pearson, M.L.A. for Nanaimo, when they spoke here last night in support of the candidature of Olof Hanson, Liberal candidate for Skeena in the forthcoming federal election. The Recreation Hall, where the meeting was held, was filled to capacity with a large and attentive audience which gave a responsive hearing to each of the speakers. There was much enthusiasm and the speeches were punctuated with outbursts of applause.

STORM IS TERRIBLE

Death Toll of Eleven in Tempest in Newfoundland Thursday Night

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 28.—The toll of a terrific thunderstorm which swept Eastern Newfoundland late Thursday night was placed at 11 lives yesterday.

Five were killed by lightning at St. John's alone. At Lumsden, a fishing settlement, hail stones, weighing as much as 10 pounds, bombarded the community, sinking 30 boats in the harbor and smashing practically every roof and window in the village. Three fishermen in their boats clung to the bottoms until beaten to death by falling ice.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Premier Points Out Liberals Responsible For Them—Defends Trade Treaties

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 28.—Old age pensions, development of trade with the West Indies and the Australian and New Zealand treaties found a prominent place in Premier King's final speech in the Maritime Provinces, here.

Declaring that there had already been misrepresentation of his position on old age pensions, the Premier summarized the government's accomplishments in this regard. It was the Liberal government that had passed old age pensions legislation, he declared, and the Conservative majority in the Senate that had thrown it out. It was the Liberal government which had passed it through Parliament and under which it becomes effective.

Increased prosperity in Canada was the direct cause of New Zealand butter importations, the Premier said. He asserted that Canada had derived great benefit from the Australian treaty and that exports of goods under that agreement made more work for Canadian workmen.

Gregory Mangin of United States Beats Him in British Tennis Championships

WIMBLEDON, June 28.—Gregory Mangin of the United States yesterday defeated Bunny Austin of England 9-7, 10-8, 6-0 in the British tennis championship competition.

VANCOUVER WHEAT
 VANCOUVER, June 28.—Wheat was quoted on the local exchange today at 94½c.

The first speaker, Mr. Pearson, gave a strong and able exposition of Canada's progress under nine years of Liberal administration. He quoted independent figures obtained from bank reports, etc., and made a splendid impression. Owing to the inability of the Conservative mind to deal with the problems of the common people of the country, he was confident that the Mackenzie King government would be returned to power.

Mr. Pattullo, in his masterly and inimitable style, covered the period from 1921 to 1929 and a strong interest was manifested by the audience in his remarks. He also dealt with the advantages of the trade treaties, Imperial preference and adherence to the British Commonwealth of nations. He exposed misleading statements that had been made by J. C. Brady, Conservative candidate, and gave his version of Premier King's five-cent speech. He made a slashing indictment of the policies or lack of such expressed by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader. The world was looking to see what Canada would do in this election, he said.

Late J. G. A. Creighton Had Been Identified With Canadian Senate Many Years

OTTAWA, June 28.—James George Alwin Creighton C.M.G., K.C., law clerk of the Senate, dropped dead with heart failure while entering Rideau Club last night.

The late Mr. Creighton was born in Halifax June 12, 1850, and received his education in Halifax Grammar School and Dalhousie and McGill Universities. He became a civil engineer and engaged in surveys and construction work on the Intercolonial Railways and other public works. In 1877 he took up the study of law and in 1880 was called to the Quebec Bar. He was appointed to the Senate in 1882 and had been associated with the Red Chamber ever since.

LOCAL PIGEON ALIGHTS AT WRANGELL

Thomas Favors Opposition Representation at Parley If Dominions Are Favorable

LONDON, June 28.—"If the Dominions agree to the suggestion that Opposition parties as well as governments should be represented at the Imperial Conference, this government would welcome the innovation but it would be absurd to seek to impose such conditions should other parts of the Empire not be agreeable."

In these words Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Dominions, replied in the House of Commons to Rt. Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, Secretary of State for the Dominions in the last Conservative government.

The matter arose during debate on estimates for Dominion offices. The increasing and rationalization of Empire trade formed the chief topic and the discussion was fruitful in ideas.

MACKENZIE SWORN IN

British Columbian Takes Oath as Member of Premier King's Cabinet

VANCOUVER, June 28.—Hon. Ian Mackenzie, late member of the British Columbia legislature, was sworn in yesterday as a member of Premier King's cabinet by E. J. LeMaire, clerk of the privy council, who came here from Ottawa especially for the swearing ceremony.

Last night the newly appointed cabinet minister, who is running as Liberal candidate for Vancouver Centre, made his first public address since his appointment. He declared that the election would be fought on an economic issue. It was a contest which the Liberals could enter sanguine of success as a result of the nine-year record of the government.

Homing Bird Released at Terrace Was Lost, Reaching Alaska Town

Canadian Press Dispatch Received at Daily News Office Leads Inspector James M. Tupper to Interesting Information

Inspector James M. Tupper, officer commanding the Royal Canadian Mounted Police here, on being advised this morning of the receipt at the Daily News office of a dispatch from Wrangell, Alaska, announcing that a stray homing pigeon had arrived there, identified the bird as being one of his own which had been released at Terrace on Wednesday by Corp. Cameron of the R.C.M.P. staff here. The bird which alighted at Wrangell yesterday was released with another at Terrace on Wednesday afternoon at 20 minutes to five. The one bird arrived safely home here at 8:30 the same evening and, after two days had elapsed without any sign or word of their other, Inspector Tupper began to believe that it must have been captured and devoured by hawks.

The lost bird, Inspector Tupper explains, was a young one and, while it had been released at Shames near Terrace the week previous and had come safely home, this was the first occasion on which it had been released with a message. Inspector Tupper believes that it may have become bewildered for this reason and lost its way. In any case, it must have travelled some three or four hundred miles within the two days it took it to reach Wrangell.

Inspector Tupper is a well known pigeon fancier and it was for this reason that the Daily News was prompted to inform him of the finding of the stray bird. He tells of another of his pigeons which released at Kitwanga on Thursday just about the time the westbound train left there and which reached home here five minutes after the train came in.

The dispatch, transmitted through the Canadian Press, was as follows:

WRANGELL, June 28.—Overcome by exhaustion, a homing pigeon alighted here yesterday. A message in a container attached to one leg said that the bird had been released from a Canadian National train on June 25. The message was signed with the single letter "C." On a tag on the other leg was printed 1929 and the number 65. The pigeon's destination is unknown here.

Prime Minister Takes Direct Issue With Opposition Leader in Matter of Population Exodus and Export of Raw Materials

SHERBROOKE, Quebec, June 28.—Direct issue with Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, was taken by Premier King here last night. The Premier denied that the boys and girls of Canada were going to the United States. Instead, he stated, "the tide has changed and our young people are coming back more and more to this side and going less and less to the other. Mr. King also met the complaint of the Conservative leader that Canada was exporting her raw materials by the positive declaration that Canada exports less of her raw materials to the United States than that republic exports to Canada. If the country has to export goods, it must import them also, he said.

"Does Mr. Bennett want us to stop importing cotton and close our cotton factories?" the Premier asked. "Does he want us to cease importing rubber and close our factories which use rubber?"

The meeting was the final one which the Premier will address in Eastern Canada at present.

That Emigration Bogey

Messrs. Bennett and Stevens still continue their attempts to deceive the electorate upon the question of emigration to the United States. They continue to quote only one set of figures, namely the number of Canadians emigrating to the States. They say nothing about the Canadians returning to Canada from that country. This is deception and amounts to deliberate misrepresentation of the facts.

In the year 1925 the number of Canadians emigrating to the States was 100,895 and this has been steadily decreasing each year until 1929 it was only 64,440. As against this 33,798 Canadians returned in 1929 and 30,560 Americans came to Canada to live so that in the exchange of citizens with the States in that year the net loss was only 82.

The balance of migration between the two countries since the Liberal Government came into power has been steadily changing, so much so that the United States Consul General at Montreal in 1929 made this report with regard to it:

"Canadian emigration has slowed down of its own accord, and the tide appears definitely to have turned. Canada's development will certainly now for a time be more rapid than that of the United States, and the balance of migration will in all likelihood swing strongly in Canada's favor, and remain so for at least two or three decades."

Moreover the Tory speakers fail to inform their hearers that during the years 1881 to 1890, when our population was only half what it is today, under a Conservative regime and the National Policy there was an exodus of 393,304 Canadians to the States. In the years 1911 to 1920 inclusive, when the Tories again were in control the emigration of Canadians to the States amounted to 742,185.

When the electors find out that the Tory leaders are attempting to mislead them, this deceit will prove a boomerang.
