VICTORIA CELEBRATED THE ARMISTICE DAY

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

VICTORIA, Nov. 12.—The Armistice Day passed quietly here. A parade engaged in by the blue-jackets of H. M. S. New Zealand and the Boys Naval Brigade and the Boy Scouts, was held in the morning. In the evening, following a torchlight procession, a street dance was held in Yates street. Some of the churches held services, where the form suggested by the King was observed.
