BURNS LAKE

It took only twenty minutes for the Circle R. Hotel on the north shore of Francois Lake to be destroyed by fire early last Thursday morning. The proprietor, John Roberts, and his wife escaped in their night attire, while several guests rushed through the blazing. lobby in their bare feet. Zero Expert marcelling, finger and weather was prevailing.

The new trail from Wistaria to Francois Lake is proving a great boon to the settlers, who are thus brought much closer to the outside

The Francois Lake ferry has ceased operating owing to the ice and its service will probably not be resumed until the lake is free of ice about next May.
