New Wage Scale Is Allowed For Phone Workers

On recommendation of the utilities committee, the city council decided last night to enter into a new agreement with the Union of Electrical Workers in regard to wages and working conditions for telephone department employees. Under the new agreement, the local water waving. Face massage and wage scale will be 25c a day higher, scalp treatments. bringing it into conformity with the Vancouver scale and with that of the Power Corporation of Canada here. Also provision is made whereby employees of five or more years' standing are given two weeks Quick Returns-Careful Finishing holidays with pay each year. Oth- WRATHALL'S PHOTO FINISHINGS erwise, the agreement is similar to the one which has always existed. It sets the salary of the wire chief at $215 per month and the wages of journeymen and cable splicers at $7.75 and $8.75 per 8-hour day respectively. Overtime calls for double pay.

In addition to bringing the local scale into conformity with that existing at other places, the changes would give the employees incentive to give even better service to the city, Ald. Macdonald, chairman of the utilities committee, said in recommending the new schedule to P. O. BOX 416, the council.
