

COUNTY COURT CASES HEARD BY JUDGE

Georgetown Lumber Co. Awarded
$91.59 Against C. K. Ytreberg.

Court sittings were continued before Judge Young yesterday afternoon. There are a number of cases yet to appear when the solicitors have them ready for hearing. The Marvin E. Allen case over the issuing of worthless checks is pending while more evidence is being secured. The date for the hearing has not yet been set.

Yesterday afternoon the action of the Georgetown Lumber Company versus C. K. Ytreberg was concluded. The plaintiff company was awarded $91.59 after certain allowances had been made for the defendant. The original claim of the plaintiffs was for $200. The action arose over a sale of lumber.

The case of J. Fred Smith vs. Mrs. D. Rutten also came up. The plaintiff is a merchant of Port Clements and the defendant is a married woman resident of Massett. The action arises over the sale of a stove which the defendant claims was not the same as described to her by the plaintiff at the time of sale. The plaintiff denies the allegation and states that after the first sale for twenty-five dollars, he had had chance to sell the same stove for sixty dollars but said that he was not going to stand the $15 loss. Thus he is suing Mrs. Rutten for the price of the stove. Whoever wins the case the costs and expenses are going to be heavy, as they include a lot of travelling expenses between here and the islands as well as solicitor's fees.

CRUDE OIL FROM THE PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

President of Imperial Oil Company Says Discoveries are Promising.

Edmonton, Nov. 13.—President O. Stillman, of the Imperial Oil Company, is here with his party during the Northwest on his private car. He is inspecting oil possibilities in the country and states that geologists employed by his company have made most promising discoveries in the Peace River block. He asserts that it is apparent that northern British Columbia and Alberta are destined to become immense factors in the production of crude oil in the near future.

PROGRAM CHANGED AT EMPRESS THEATRE

"Blind Man's Eyes," starring Bert Lytell is the feature tonight at the Empress Theatre. The story is a powerful one and shows the incalculable harm which can be caused numberless people through malicious and criminal accusations based on hate and envy. Bert Lytell is seen in the role of Hugh Overton, a man of high standing in the community where he lives but who loses everything dear to him when he is accused of a crime which he did not commit. How he determines to uncover the real criminal and bring him to justice is dramatically told in the vivid play which is cleverly interspersed with sympathetic comedy and glowing romance.

The Princess Mary passed through here yesterday afternoon leaving at 2:30. She had a very light passenger list and picked up about twenty-four passengers were, most of whom were bound for Ketchikan.

See the great circus film at the Empress tonight.

If you have only $5 you can buy a Victory Bond

Is your Bank account low?
Is "Cash on hand" rather scarce?
That is no reason why you should not buy at least one Victory Bond.
The Victory Loan 1919 isn't a rich man's loan.

It's a NATIONAL LOAN.
That means everybody—you, your family, your friends and acquaintances.
Not only those who have money "saved up," but also those who can save from week to week.

You don't have to own $50.00 right now to buy a $50.00 Victory Bond.

You can do it with $5.00 cash.
Make that the first payment on a $50.00 Bond.

Pay the other instalments in ten months.

Almost anybody can save $1.00, $2.00 or $3.00 a week.

Don't neglect to buy because you haven't a large sum.

The instalment plan will suit you to a "T."

Thousands and thousands of Canadians now own Victory Bonds they have paid for that way.

Make your first payment on a Victory Bond to-day.

A few months from now you will be glad you did—because you will have it paid for by then.

Buy Victory Bonds $5 will start you

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.
