

Romantic Prince Is Great Story by Rafael Sabatini

Modern Dumas Has Another Enticing Yarn of the Fifteenth Century

Rafael Sabatini is one of the most popular writers of historic novels and has a lengthy list of these to his credit.

The story of Prince Anthony in all its wealth of plot and counter plot was lost long ago and only through the magic of Sabatini has it come to light.

Anthony d'Esmon, Duke of Guelders, an idealist, dreamer and poet was cousin of the powerful Duke Charles of Burgundy.

Anthony of Esmon had never paid much attention to women, but when he saw the fair-haired, blue-eyed Johanna, standing in the doorway of her father's big red-brick house, his heart went out to her in a single-hearted devotion.

On the part of Louis XI, again, takes Anthony to the side of Charles the Bold, and some of the cruel king's designs are frustrated by the shrewdness of Anthony.

One of the chief citizens of Middleburg complicated in the insurrection plots is Philip Danvelt, and while apprehending the husband, Rhynsault meets Johanna, and desires her. Nothing must interfere with his wishes, and Danvelt's stupid head is to be sacrificed unless Johanna will accept the powerful governor's unwelcome advances.

PROTESTING AT LONG SKIRTS

Fanny Hurst Sees in Them Attempt To Put Women Back

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(By the Canadian Press)—Not all women are accepting the latest fashionable dictates as to long skirts with equanimity.

Now, industry with a quirk of his head, reaches out and attempts to put us back. The leg is becoming nasty again with its long silken coverings of skirts.

"Caroline is false to the league," a girl growled at a strawberry festival in the Nola Chucky.

Man in the Moon This is 1930 folks, so mind how you date your letters.

Jake says what he hates about this beginning of a new year is that everybody expects you to pay your Christmas bills.

Horses and buggies would have been popular too in the old days, if they could have been bought with ten dollars down and the balance in easy payments.

Did you ever think how hard those easy payments usually are? I'd like to give you all a lecture this afternoon but the editor says he's the only one allowed to give lectures at this time of year.

WOMAN SHOULD KEEP HERSELF

Everyone Should Be Trained On Some Useful Art, Minister Avers

WINDSOR, Ont., Jan. 2.—"Every young woman should be trained in some useful art by which she can support herself," declared Rev. A. E. Runnels, pastor of Central United Church, during a sermon delivered to a congregation on "Women in Business."

Dealing with the criticism sometimes offered that women made work a makeshift, a temporary expedient, and, therefore, did not show the same thoroughness as men, he stated that it would be unreasonable to expect the same self-render to business as could be found among the men, who made it their life work.
