RANGERS WINNERS

Defeated Edmonton United By Five to Nil on Thursday

EDMONTON, June 7.—Displaying remarkable control of the ball and giving an exhibition of the typically Scottish short passing that bordered on perfection, Glasgow Rangers added another one to their long list of successes here Thursday night by defeating Edmonton United by a score of five to nil. - June 16—Regiment vs. Prince Rupert Athletic Club.

SPORT CHAT

Native Sons of Canada and Centrals are billed to meet tomorrow afternoon in a postponed baseball fixture. The Canucks will make another effort to capture that elusive first victory of the season and are full of hope. The Centrals will want to win so they may get back in first place along with the Elks. Backstop ranks in city baseball are to get considerable bolstering up with the recent arrival in the city of two new catchers—Cecil Downey, who has been spending some time in Vancouver, and J. Gomez, who recently arrived from San Francisco. This Gomez is said to be some ball player. He has a brother on the New York Yankees line-up and himself was tried out for the San Francisco Seals this spring. Downey will go to the Centrals and Gomez to the Native Sons of Canada or vice versa.

REGIMENT WINS CUP

Tooq Gilhuly Trophy Last Night By Beating Canadian Legion in Final Fixture

The Canadian Legion fielded only eight men for last night's Gilhuly Cup football game and, at half time, the match was called off on account of rain and lack of interest with the score standing five to nil for the Regiment, who thus take the Gilhuly Cup, first football trophy of the season. It was again disappointing that the Legion should repeat, as they did last Tuesday night, the fielding of a short team.

Scorers for the Regiment last night were Smurthwaite, two; Macdonald, Watson and Wilson, one each. Charlie Baple and George Howe played a good game for the Canadian Legion. James Andrews was referee and C. L. Youngman and J. N. Kelly, linesmen.

The final standing for the Gilhuly Cup is as follows:

	W.	D.	L.	F.	A.	P.
Regiment	4	1	1	1	1	4
Athletic Club	4	0	2	1	0	4
Canadian Legion	0	1	5	1	1	1

Regiment and Canadian Legion are scheduled to meet next Monday evening in the first of the Dominion Cup play-offs.
