I.W.W. Prisoner Turns State's Evidence at Centralia; Raid Made on Seattle Newspaper

Union Labor Record seized and several employees arrested, including the editor; Lynched man buried in pauper's grave without funeral service

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

CENTRALIA, WASH., Nov. 14.—Federal, state, county and city officials investigating the Armistice Day affray were assisted in the work when one of the prisoners, Britt Smith, also called Brick Smith, said to be the secretary of the Centralia I. W. W. local, turned state's evidence and pointed out four men whom he said were in the room from which some of the shots were fired on Tuesday. All four carried guns just before the parade, Smith said, and he guessed they did some shooting.

The police and former soldiers continued to seek alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World involved in the fatal shooting. Four industrial workers were taken from jail to bury Everett who was lynched after the shooting, when the local undertakers refused to do so. Accompanied by seventeen armed national guardsmen the four prisoners went into the pauper section of the local cemetery, dug a grave, lowered the body and covered it up without services of any nature.

TACOMA, November 14.—A report that an I. W. W. gathering at Bordeaux, Washington, was in preparation for attacking Thurston County jail at Olympia to release three men arrested at Centralia on Tuesday, brought every available citizen who could secure a weapon to the jail on Thursday night.
