City Council Objects to Power Corporation Proceeding With Work Before Approval

After hearing read a large budget matter, the city council last night on motion of Ald. Rudderham and Mrs. Walter Shaw, who has been Brown, passed a resolution whereby tension transmission line now befor her home in the Fraser Valley, ing built through the city streets by the Power Corporation of Canada to its Cow Bay sub-station.

Objection was taken by some of the aldermen who engaged in the discussion at the Power Corporahands and building the high tension line through the city without having, as required, the city's consent. Despite efforts made by the city, no complete plan for the line had as yet been presented. The factor of safety in connection with the erection of the line engaged the attention of some of the members of POST OFFICE afternoon on the Prince Rupert to until the city had the opportunity to pass upon it. Near Big Leaguer Pitching Today's Baseball Game in Vancouver-Prince Rupert Series

Bill-Richardson, who is to pitch for Vancouver this afternoon in the second of the Fair Week baseball series with Prince Rupert, was on the roster of the New York Giants this spring. He was farmed out to the San Antonio Club of the Texas League and had the misfortune to break his finger. This necessitated his return to Vancouver.

Bill Lambie will be the hurler for Prince Rupert today.
