ARE WE RIGHT OR NOT?

Quite a few people, whose sympathies evidently were cause we do not like oranges, an estimated cost of $11,600. on the Conservative side, have questioned the forecast reasons. that Olof Hanson would have a good majority in the riding of Skeena at the coming election. Just to show that we "What will you take, sir?" said Rupert Exhibition. are not alone in the view we take, here is an editorial ar- the waiter in America's "driest" ticle headed "Olof Hanson Is Elected," from the Interior city. News which indicates a similar view:

Olof Hanson, Skeena Liberal candidate, is elected. Re- Deaf man: "The same as my ports from every polling point in the interior is proof of friend, but with more soda." that statement. Probably never in the political history of this riding has there been such a complete reversal of national thought in such a short space of time. On this flood The Letter Box of Liberalism, and on this general recognition of the native ability of the Liberal candidate and the important part he has played and is still playing in the economic life MR. BRADY AND UNION LABOR of Skeena district, Olof Hanson will ride into office on July 28 with the largest majority ever rolled up in Skeena.

Skeena district has always been Liberal. The thought of Skeena in the past four years, when it was represented by pire of July 16th inst. under the a Conservative, was still Liberal. Mr. Brady won the last caption "Echoes of the Fray" inelection because Liberals were determined to oust their serted, one must presume, by Mr. member previous to 1926.
