Rangers and Americans In New York and Maroons and Canadiens in Montreal Draw

BOSTON, Dec. 31:-The Bruins defeated Ottawa seven to three last night and increased their lead over Chicago in the American section of the National Hockey League to two full games.

At New York, before 16,000 fans the Americans and the Rangers battled to a two-two draw.

At Montreal, in another city game, the Canadiens and the Mafroons battled to a one-all draw. The Maroons were leading until late in the third period when Howie Morenz tied it up for the Canadiens.
