.J. W. Jones to Take Over Finance Portfolio and Bruhn

Further Changes At Later Date Are Believed Possible

Five By-Elections Will Have to Be Held Soon If Reported Changes Prove to Be Authentic

VICTORIA, Oct. 29:-Premier Tolmie started yesterday to reconstruct his cabinet by asking for the resignations of all his ministers. He made no announcement of the changes to be made but it is authoritatively stated that they will involve four changes as follows:

Hon. W. C. Shelly, minister of finance, to becomes president of council.

Hon, J. W. Jones, present Speaker of the legisuature to become minister of finance.

Hon. R. W. Bruhn, present president of the council to become minister of public works.

Hon. N. S. Lougheed, present minister of public works, to become minister of lands.

Hon. F. P. Burden, the present minister of lands, it is rumored, will go to London as agent-general for British Columbia succeeding F. A. Pauline.

Other members of the cabinet, it is believed, will be reappointed to their present portfolios.

H. D. Twigg, M. L. A. for Victoria, is expected to succeed Mr. Jones as Speaker. He is now deputy speaker. Further changes at a later date are regarded as pos-

With the forecast of cabinet changes, British Columbia is facing five by-elections. J. W. Jones in North Okanagan and Hon. R. W. Bruhn woul dhave to go to the electors on taking positions of emolument and Hon. F. P. Burden's seat in Fort George would be vacant. In addition, there will be a poll in North Vancouver on November 5 and another will be necessary in the Islands Constituency to fill the seat of Col. C. W. Peck V. C., M. L.
