Twenty Years Ago
In Prince Rupert

March 21, 1910

Richard J. Clark, formerly of the Victoria staff, has been appointed by the heirs of the late John Houston to take charge of the Fort George Tribune newspaper.

The steamer Alaskan, which was recently purchased by the Massett Fish Co., will be commissioned in service shortly to carry the product of the company from Massett to Prince Rupert where it will be trans-shipped south. The Alaskan is also being fitted out for passenger an dgeneral freight service.

In reply to an appeal by Dr. W. T. Kergin, Hon. William Templeman, federal minister of mines, has issued instructions for a geological survey party to carry out work this summer at Stewart and on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Man in the Moon

One day I bought a radio set,
But sad it is to tell,
When there is music on the air
I hear it screech like fun.

Jake says the radio people are becoming exasperated. One of these days he thinks there will be something happen to somebody if things don't improve.

Parents are queer creatures that care much more about their children's standing in school than about their health and prospects for future progress in life.

Why wear silk when everybody knows you have nothing but a gingham income?
