

First Game of Football Season Ends In Scoreless Draw; Teams Show Good Opening Season Form

Regiment and Canadian Legion played to a scoreless draw last night in the opening game of the football season—the first match in the Gilhuly Cup series. Considering it was the initial encounter of the year, good soccer was played. The Regiment might have had a slight edge but, at that, the draw was a fair ending for both teams missed scoring chances. Indeed, the work of the goalkeepers—Johnston Smith for the Legion and George Laidler for the Regiment—was an outstanding feature of the evening's performances. New players on either side gave a good account of themselves.

The Regiment was on the offensive a good deal in the first half and Johnston Smith saved well from Jack Wilson and Angus Macdonald. R. Woods suffered a twisted knee toward the close of the period and had to leave the field. The loss of this half back was unfortunate for the Legion.

The Regiment might again be said to have had the best of the second half with Smith still keeping a fine goal for the Legion. Norrington went clean through and would have scored had it not been for fine goal tending. Laidler also saved well in turn from Charlie Baple, star forward for the Legion. Baple played a good game but was accorded uncertain support.

Outstanding players for the Regiment were Jimmy Ross, Jock Watson, Philip Edgecumbe and some of the new men. The Legion was given good service by Smith, in goal, Jack, Hadden, Redpath and Jimmy Currie.

Sam Currie gave satisfaction with his services as referee while Alex Clapperton and Andy Murray were linesmen.

The players were:
Regiment—Goal, George Laidler; full backs, Jimmy Ross and Harold Corbett; half backs, Philip Edgecumbe, Jock Watson and Doig; forwards, J. S. Wilson, Angus Macdonald, R. Smurthwaite, J. Murray and C. J. Norrington.
Canadian Legion—Goal, Johnston Smith; full backs, George Howe and B. Jack; half backs, Redpath, T. Haddon and R. Woods; forwards, Fred Hunter, J. Currie, C. Baple, J. Johnson and J. Comadina.

A very fair sized crowd of fans witnessed the match. The next game will be Friday night between Prince Rupert Athletic Club and Regiment.
