Miss Mary McRae R.N. returned to the city this week from a holiday trip to Vancouver and elsewhere in the south. She is to join the nursing staff of the Prince Rupert General Hospital from which she recently graduated.

The hospital board last night authorized the secretary to purchase for $83 a new developing tank for the hospital x-ray equipment. The present tank is nearly eaten through by acid and may be soon impossible to use. The new tank will be impervious to the effects of acid.

Jabour's 95c. sale Friday 19th and Saturday 20th. 219

L. W. Hogan, manager of Humpback Bay cannery, sailed last night on the Prince George for Vancouver.

Mrs. Howard Stee of Prince Rupert is a visitor in the city for a short time and is the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Lindsay.—Vancouver Sun.

Coats and furs of all kinds. Over one hundred coats to select from. Our repairs, cleaning and remodelling done on the premises. Everything guaranteed 30% cheaper than can be bought in the south. The old reliable GOLDBLOOM. 217

Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald, commissioner to conduct the enquiry into the dismissal of Norman A. Watt, former government agent here, will arrive in the city on the Princess Louise tomorrow morning from Vancouver. The enquiry opens here on Monday next.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Maquina Capt. Fenton, arrived in port at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the south and will sail this evening on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The vessel is discharging here 56,000 feet of lumber to be used in the construction of the highway bridge across Galloway Rapids.
