REORGANIZE SOCIETY OR HAVE SOCIALISM IS WRITER'S ADVICE (Continued from page two.) possible continuity of present depression during the year 1931 as the bottom level had not been arrived at. On the other hand, it is equally possible that the present depression is the last crisis, that capitalism as a historical phase in the course of evolution of human society, is developing and if so, capitalism will be negated and the expropriators expropriated. War is the only means that can revive business from its present stagnation and infuse a new whiff of life into what appears to be disintegrating system of the very economic foundation of human society as at present constituted. Hence it is imperative that the slogan "not a man, not a gun, not a penny for the war," that was formulated by British Labor some years ago be revived and sustained despite what is thought to be a patriotic fervor—a relic of barbarism and contemporary with intellectual adolescence of society. Anarcho-Individualistic - Armament and munitions manufacturers with their backing bankers, while concerned over their unholy profits, are deliberately playing upon and stimulating patriotism in the minds of people accustomed to have their opinions manufactured for them, as investigations in U. S. of lobbying activities have revealed. Unless society will get organized as a social organism that would co-ordinate and subordinate all economic activities with their social ramifications of all those anarcho-individualistic men, another colossal murder is likely to sweep present civilization and, perhaps, most of us, into oblivion. Recent press reports as to queer poisonous clouds that have occurred in Belgium and the unpublished wireless report of a similar occasion in London indicate that constant preparations are being made at the risk of hundreds of human lives for the time when the present silent struggle over markets and raw material will break out into open war and then we will have airplanes, guns and rockets scattering poisonous gas, bacilli, microbes, death rays and what-not and all for preservation of profits for a handful of capitalists. M. ANDERSON.
