MORE HOPEFUL ASPECT SEEN IN BUSINESS OF CANADA; RAIL CHIEF OPTIMISTIC FOR THE FUTURE.

The increased shipments indicate the wider range of farming interests evident in the west, where diversification is being practiced to a greater extent than ever before.

Expressing his opinion of the motor cars and busses as carriers, the vice-president said that passenger revenues are suffering seriously because of the greater use of the other forms of transportation, but he felt that the owner of an automobile, as a taxpayer, had a perfect right to use the public highways whenever and wherever he or she wished to do so. This was notwithstanding the fact that he attributed over 85% of the loss in passenger revenue to the use of the privately owned automobile as against 15% of the loss of passenger revenue to the use of the bus.

"It is generally conceded," he thought, "that the automobile had added much to the contentment of mankind and, as such, pays tribute to the automotive industry, which is continually devising efficient methods of production and steadily improving on the quality of their product."

"The operation of busses and trucks over the public highways, however, should be fairly regulated. It is unfair to regulate the railroads and not regulate the operators of the motor bus and motor truck conducting a transportation business over the public highways. Not only do these wear the highways out much faster than they would be worn out if only used by automobiles but, at the same time, cause discomfort and add to the danger of the users of automobiles. In many cases the motor truck can be used to advantage, as it permits of loading and dispatching at any hour, which gives it a legitimate place in the field of transportation if properly regulated and taxed. Of course the farmer, if using a truck for his own use, should not be taxed."

Railways Established
"In the public mind the railways have more than ever established themselves as the main supporting members of the whole Canadian economic, agricultural, commercial and industrial structure. The relations between the public and the railroads were never more cordial than they are today and each has a sympathetic regard for the rights and interests of the other."

Mrs. John R. Mitchell and son, George C. Mitchell, who have been on a trip to Southern Alberta on account of the illness of Mrs. Mitchell's mother, returned to the city on the Prince George this morning. Mr. Mitchell will be returning later.

TRIBUTE IS PAID

was outstanding.
Centuries ago, in tribal days, the woman was the leader of the tribe. She was the counterpart of the present-day king, and what more apt title for dear Grandma than the Matriarch of Western Canada Jewry.

Likened to Matriarch

And when I saw her last summer, I thought I could visualize a gallant old matriarch of ancient days. For there she was with her beautiful face and snow-white hair weak and run-down, but still lovely and always fighting, always determined to win the grimmest battle of all. One could easily understand that here was an outstanding woman who led the forces of good and righteousness and had championed the cause of the unfortunate. I will always remember dear grandma looking through the window, watching the sun stream in thinking of what? That kindly, all-knowing and intelligent face, the chair, the shawl, the window—it is a beautiful picture that has indelibly impressed itself on my mind.

And now she lies in that beautiful plot of ground along the bank of the Fraser where all is verdant, fresh and peaceful. It was her tendency to move westward, perhaps now she is in some other land, and unknown and even more western country. Wherever this may be, I know that she has already found some good to be done. Her loving memory will always be cherished by those who were so dear to her.

LOCAL ITEMS

Morley Shier, well known powder traveller, is a passenger aboard the Prince George today bound for Anyox in the course of one of his periodical northern business trips.

Mrs. T. J. Marsh and Miss Deacon, who have been visiting in Vancouver, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning and will proceed in a few days to Terrace. Mrs. Marsh is the mother of Mrs. J. B. Farquhar of this city.

Charles Bocking, president and general manager of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co., is a passenger aboard the Prince George today bound from Vancouver to Anyox.

Twenty Years Ago

In Prince Rupert

April 22, 1911

The tentative agreement between the city of Prince Rupert and R. Brunel of the Tsimpsen Light & Power Co. whereby the latter concern will establish a gas supply in Prince Rupert is published today.

Reciprocity between United States and Canada would help Prince Rupert greatly, it is felt. Last night the House of Representatives at Washington adopted the proposal of reciprocity by a vote of 265 to 89.

Young People of United Church Have Merry Time

Last evening in First United Church there was a delightful entertainment and social put on by the Young People's Society. A good sized audience enjoyed the program offered.

The program originated in the radio studio of station CYPs and was broadcast by authority of the Canadian government. The first part was a one-act play entitled "Auntie." Those taking part were Miss D. Morrison, Miss J. Edgecumbe, Miss E. Vickers, Miss W. Dobb, B. Steves, E. Barrie and R. Morrison.

The second part of the program consisted of a parade of nations. Those represented were: Turkey, E. Barrie; China, B. Steves; Holland, Miss J. Edgecumbe and Miss D. Morrison; Japan, Miss P. Harvey; Russia, Miss M. Feero and two belles of 1870 played by Miss W. Dobb and Miss E. Vickers. Six-year old Jack Thumb, a past-president of the A. O. B. B., read a humorous piece entitled, "How Jimmy Treated the Baby."

The third part was a negro dialogue by the world renowned Canadian Amos and Andy of radio fame, B. Steves and R. Irvine.

The CYPs orchestra, Miss E. Grassie, Miss R. Wilkinson and B. Cameron assisted with appropriate selections.

Refreshments were served by the social committee at the close. Those helping were Miss J. Thomas, Miss C. Donnelly, Miss G. Feero, P. Edgecumbe, J. Wrathall and G. Dobb.

Better Times

Let's start the ball a-rollin' up
The hill of better times,
And send old Gloom a-flyin' with
Our dollars and our dimes.
Let's put our shoulder to the wheel,
That's buried in the earth,
And every person in the land
Just PUSH for all they're worth.

It isn't right for decent folks,
To be so blue and dumb,
Let's raise the flag for better times,
To greet them when they come.
There's food enough in Canada
To feed a million more,
And I can just hear old man Spring,
A-knockin' at the door.

Take in your belt another notch,
Start in without a fuss,
We've got the whole world on our side,
The rest is up to US.
We've got a hundred thousand men,
The greatest land on earth;
Let's hitch our wagon to a star,
And PULL for all we're worth.

—EDNA JACQUES (in Edmonton Journal.)

Albert Farrow, steamboat inspector, arrived in the city from Vancouver on the Prince George this morning, being here on official duties.
