Song Recital at Salvation Army is Much Enjoyed

There was a large gathering in the Salvation Army Citadel last night when a delightful song recital was held, many of the popular army numbers of an earlier day being recalled in the course of the program. Commandant William Kerr presided and described each song and its writer as the numbers came on.

The program was as follows: Congregational—"O Boundless Salvation" (William Booth), "I Bring My All to Thee." (Bramwell Booth).

Prayer led by Mrs. William Kerr Mouth Organ Solo, "When the Trumpet of The Lord," Jack Mowatt.

Duet—Sergeant Major Aexcer and Henry White.

Vocal solo—Norwegian—"Rock of Ages," Mrs. Emil Carlson.

Bible Reading—Capt. E. Warren.

Voca solo—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought," Mrs. Kerr.

Vocal solo—"All Around the World," Frank Pierce, accompanied by mouth organ and guitar.

Vocal solo—"O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," Capt. Warren.

Congregational—"As I Am Before Thy Face," (Herbert Booth), "Jesus Loves Me," (Anna B. Warner and W. B. Bradbury).

E. Herman read the story of some hymns.

be a vital factor in the moral and spiritual wellbeing of the Indians. The members have gone in for a strong temperance campaign, and have discarded the making of "home brew." Where there have been supplies these have been destroyed.

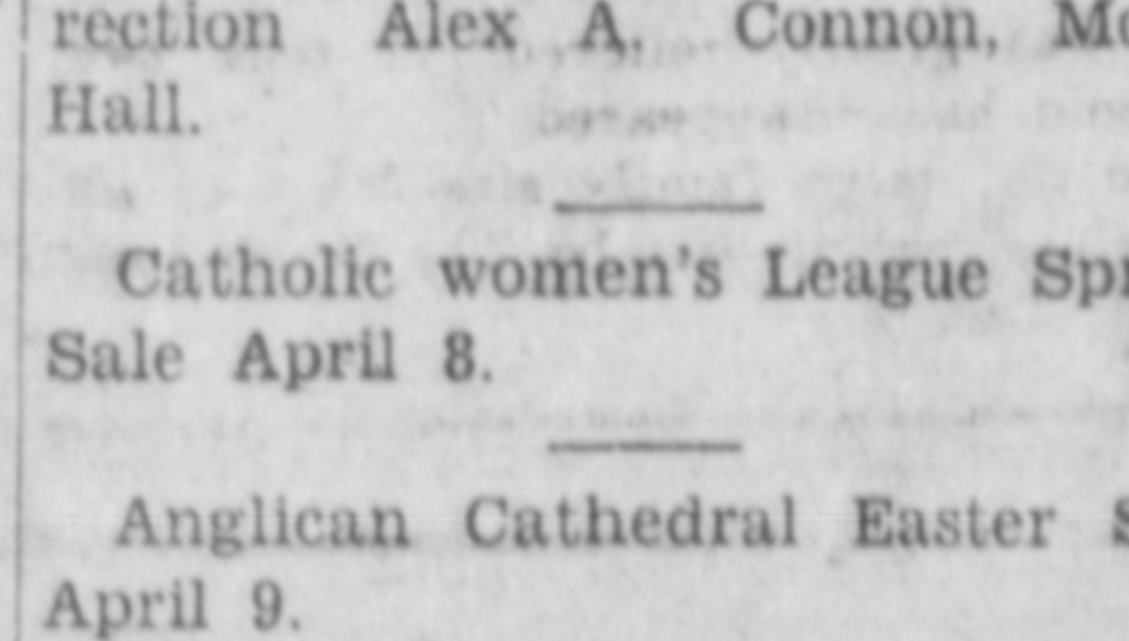

Rev. V. H. Sansum, secretary of the Missionary and Maintenance Fund, reported that the Prince Rupert Presbytery not only reached their allocation for the past year but had exceeded it by $100.

Rev. Dr. Wilson congratulated the Presbytery on their splendid effort and said that, when all the reports come to hand, it would be found that Prince Rupert Presbytery was likely to be the only Presbytery in B.C. which had reached such a high mark.
