RURDOCK BLOOD

Indigestion So Bad Was Afraid To Eat

Mrs. A. T. Bowman, 157 Bebeses
St., Hamilton, Ont., writes:-"I had been troubled, for years, with indigestion and suffered so badly I was afraid to eat. I am on my third bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and can now out anything I like without distress after, and can enjoy my sleep every night without fear of suffering. I cannot praise B.B.B. too highly for what it has done for me."

Mrs. Margaret Wynes Died of Drowning After Jumping in Harbor, Tuesday

Mental Aberration

Unfortunate Woman Had Suffered From Heart Illness and Sleep-Walking

That the late Mrs. Margaret Wynes, whose body was found floating in the harbor Tuesday morning, "came to her death by drowning at or about 7 o'clock that morning by jumping into the harbor from the Canadian National dock while suffering from temporary mental aberration," was the City delivery, by mail or carrier, yearly period, paid in advance 5.00 verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon at the inquest into the fatality. Coroner Norman A. Watt presided over the inquest and examination of witnesses was conducted by Sergeant W. J. Service. The jury consisted of Harry Scott, foreman, David Smith, J. Candow, . M. Graham, Foster Willan and Robert Arthur.

> The first witness was Dr. J. P. Cade who testified that drowning was the cause of death. There were no marks of violence.

George Wohlschlegel, son-in-law of deceased, testified that he had known Mrs. Wynes for eighteen or! nineteen years. She would have been 62 years old next month. Deceased Thursday, June 18, 1931 had "a little money" and had no financial worries. Deceased had stayed for a week at the home of witness, going on Monday to work at the mayor's house.
