Jimmy McLarnin is the most popular fighter in the world today in the afternoon, and a large dance writes Ed. Travile He is die best in the evening. It was decided not drawing card in New York, short of to have the Anyox-Prince Rupert the heavyweight division. Perhap it may develop this year that he i even better than the heavyweights for the gate of his match with Billy Petrolle was more than twice the size of Tommy Loughran's gate with Vittorio Campolo, and Tommy i the current sensation of the big division. But when you come to Leon ard and Berlenbach, you run inte Railwaymen Beat two outdoor records of more than $450,000 each. Leonard drew that much with Lew Tendler at the Pole Grounds, and Berlenbach tied i with Jack Delaney. The highest gate McLarnin has registered thu: far was $160,000 against Al Singer.

On the other hand, no fighter in history has excelled McLarnin's record as an indoor drawing card Day in and day out, no matter who is the opponent, in hard times or field, but there were plenty of ingood times, the Irish boy is an $80,-000 card any time he cares to walk Jimmy's record of $110,000 for his return match with Ray Miller still stands as the world's indoor record for a show where the ringside prices did not exceed $10. His gate with Singer would have been twice as big had Singer been conceded the chance that Tendler was conceded against Leonard. Thousands of Jewish fans stayed away, rather than watch Singer go to what they considered would be a sure knock-

VIGOUR NEW

"For many many years I have seen the need for overworked wives of a half bottle of Stout at 11 a.m. with a sandwich, and one at supper-but it must be Guinness. There is a special tonic result, and I prescribe it largely. The first gives vigour and the bedtime one brings sweet sleep." M.R.C.S.

This letter, printed by special permission, is one of thousands recently received from the Medical Profession emphasizing the value of Guinness.

Don't forget that ringside prices in the days of Leonard and Berlenbach were $20 and $25, against $10 today. And the customers had the $20 or $25 in those days, and quite a large percentage haven't the ten spot today. The difference in the condition of business makes it unfair to judge McLarnin by the standard of receipts. I would think that a $200,000 gate today would be the equivalent of a $500,000 gate of seven years ago.

Yes, you can safely call McLarnin the best drawing card there is, in New York. You can quote Tom McArdle on that, and Tom is the matchmaker of the most important boxing arena in the world, Madison Square Garden. You can also call him the best fighter there is in the Jim Thorp Signs world, pound for pound and inch for inch. The most satisfactory fighter, because he rarely clinches and he never holds. Above all, the most honest fighter, a fighter the public trusts. And if anyone wants to call him the greatest little fighter of modern times, you can quote me. He's the best I ever saw, and I've
