Last night the basketball entertainment revealed that the "spice" of the program is to be found in the Intermediate division. Tuxis and Merchants put on a fast, clean, thrilling game from which the Merchants emerged with a hardabout a perfect game to watch, with a score that indicates how evenly the teams were matched. However, this same Lambie was with their shooting. Their shots The Senior game was of the type the "generalissimo" of the C.N.R were well taken but the ball just Skinner which is nearly an aveiage of a foul every two minutes. In short, the game was fast and whatever you might call it in this League of Nations again took the ning interference." It was too bad, Mitcheli and Macdonald got sensabecause the last time C.N.R. and Panthers clashed they treated the fans to one of the finest exhibitions ever seen in this city. And last night, though the 36-32 score went home realizing that, as basketball, it wasn't "so hot."

The Intermediate game opened with fast play and fine combination by each team. Currie scored for Merchants after a hot bombardment of the Tuxis hoop. Tuxis weakened and E. Dingwell sank for the Merchants and they proagain the feature of the second to a desultory close, 36-32 for the half and both teams were working C.N.R. like slaves. Nakamoto held the Tuxis boys together and fed Morrison some nice passes to score. The whole Merchant team was functioning beautifully with Comadina outstanding and scoring ten points for his team. Their combination was a treat and with four minutes to go, they held a 26-25 lead. It was anybody's game. With a minute to go Currie and Dingwell scored rapidly. Then Nakamoto threw one in to bring the gulted, as was expected, in an score to 30-29 for Merchants as the other easy victory for the Amawhistle blew. PIPE TESTED by a SKI-ER

"My idea of recreation is a brisk, bright winter day, a pair of good ash skiis on my feet, and a pipe of good tobacco between my teeth. I always stuck to ash skiis, but used to vary the tobacco, until a fellow ski-er offered me a pipeful of Turret pipe tobacco. Its mildness and fragrance was a revelation to me, because I thought I knew all there was to know about tobacco. Now I wouldn't be without Turret pipe tobacco-I buy it in the halfpound humidor tin-and carry a full pouch with me wherever I go."
