Primo Carnera and Jim Moloney to Meet on Schedule on March 5

MIAMI, Florida, Feb. 21-Primo Carnera, the giant Italian heavyweight injured a rib while training yesterday and it was feared for a time that the injury might interfere with his bout for March 5. with Jim Moloney. After Carnera had been examined by physicians, it was ordered by the Miami Boxing Commission that no postponement of the fight should be necessary as he should be able to go on. Carnera's manager protested the ruling, stating that his principal would not be in fit shape.
