W. D. Christison, who recently sold out his interest in the La-Pac Bakery here, sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for a trip to Vancouver.

Mrs. Miller and Miss J. Miller of Pacific are paying a brief visit to the city, having arrived from the interior on yesterday afternoon's train.

Local Items

Dinnerware, china, crockery, glassware, Heilbronner's Store.

Miss E. Stewart of Winnipeg is paying a visit at Port Clements with her brother, E. Stewart.

Mrs. William Brand sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver where she expects to receive medical treatment. Mrs. Brand has been in ill-health for some time.

After three days establishing camp at Lakelse last week, Alex Kerr and his men were recalled and the work countermanded. W. Donald remained to look after the supplies which had been sent out.

There was a large attendance in the Salvation Army Citadel last night when an address by Rev. Charles E. Motte was the principal item on the meeting program. Capt. Steele had charge of the rest of the meeting.

Friends of Mrs. J. W. Collier will be pleased to know that she is home making satisfactory recovery after undergoing a serious operation at the Prince Rupert General Hospital, where she has been a patient for the past month.

UNEMPLOYED RETURNED SOLDIERS

It is requested by the minister of public works that all unemployed returned soldiers register at the local Canadian Legion giving regimental number, name, unit enlisted in, place of discharge, married or single.

The registration is additional to the Provincial Registration.

Secretary

TERRACE

A farewell social to Rev. and Mrs. E. A. McCarthy was held at the home of Mrs. Marsh on Monday night and drew a crowded attendance. Mr. A. Attree presented Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy with a purse of money from the church and congregation, and in doing so alluded to the good characteristics alike of Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy and wished them every success in their new sphere. Mr. McCarthy feelingly responded and assured the gathering that he appreciated the many kindnesses he had received while at Terrace and had made many friends whom he would not readily forget. Mrs. McCarthy also responded and refreshments were served.
