DELEGATE

Macdonald to Represent Local Council at Labor Congress-Labor Party on Tapis

In view of the outstanding importance of the gathering, the Prince Rupert Trades & Labor Council decided last night to be represented with a delegate at the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada which will be held in Vancouver. opening on September 21. Ald. S. D. Macdonald, president of the council, was named as delegate with Ald. James Black as alternate. There was a letter from the provincial organizer offering co-operation in connection with the proposal to form a Labor Party in Prince Rupert. It was decided that this matter will be gone into more fully at a special meeting to be held later by which more information will be available through the delegate to the Trades & Labor

The Council received the annual donation from T. J. Shenton, inspector of mines. Accompanying the donation, Mr. Shenton sent a letter of encouragement to the Council in its work.

Reports on the Labor Day celebration indicated that the affair had been a compete success. There will be a small balance of pro-

One Hundred Men to Get On Relief Work Monday; Will Prepare Camps for Others

Mayor Orme announced this morning that definite arrangements had been made for 100 men to go to work Monday preparing the camps for the men who are to be employed on the highway this coming winter.

It is planned to extend the Cloyah Bay camp and to build a new one at Prudhomme Lake. This will take care of 170 more men and, as they become necessary, other camps will be built to accommodate more.
