SOFT BALL EVENED UP

Ted Smith and Bill Tobey Teams Deadlocked for High School Title

Bill Tobey's team yesterday won the second game of the soft ball - finals with Ted Smith's team for the championship of the Prince Rupert High School Soft Ball League by a score of 5-4.

As a result of Friday's game the two teams are now tied in this contest for the soft ball supremacy. The third and final game will be played on Monday.

At the end of the third inning the score was 4-1 in Ted Smith's favor. At the end of the third Tominata was driven from the box when he allowed three walks and two hits. which brought Bill Tobey's team two runs. Kanaya, who replaced Dominata, was not much better. He allowed one hit and a walk with the bags filled, which netted Bill Tobey's team two more runs, thus evening up the score, 4-4. In the fourth inning Ted Smith's team threatened to rally and Bill Tobey replaced Allen in the box. In the fifth inning Ivarson hit a twobagger and scored the winning run on Morgan's hit to centrefield.

For Tobey's team, Morgan, Gillis, Dungate and Ivarson were the best. For Ted Smith's team, Arney, Bob Tobey and Kanaya gave the strongest support. The teams were:

Princess Elizabeth and the three ther children wore dresses cut in early Victorian style, with pointed bodices, ankle-length skirts, and necks cut to a point. They each have old-fashioned hanging pockets, suspended by ribbons from the dress, and their headdresses will be Juliet caps with blue ribbons. Dresses for the grown-up attendants had very long full skirt: with a slight "train" effect, fitting ightly round the hips and flowing outwards at the hem. The long tight sleeves had a puff at the shoulder, and the bodices were draped in the front. while wide straps of blue velvet falling from the shoulders were tied in a sash at the back of the waist. In their hair they wore bandeaux of twisand they wore silver shoes.
