GREAT PICTURE AT WESTHOLME

"Heart of Humanity" Seen by Many on Saturday and Proclaimed Best Yet.

"Heart of Humanity," the big play which is billed for tonight at the Westholme tonight, was seen by a good many at the matinee on Saturday and all were enthusiastic over it. Some characterized it as the biggest picture that had been here yet. It has a grip on the audience which only real heart throbs acting can produce.

"Heart of Humanity" is a story of love and sacrifice. It has a Canadian setting and is one of the strongest feature films that has ever been west.

It is not often that an opportunity is given to see a picture before the regular run. The Saturday matinee on this occasion was an exception and no better advertisement could have been arranged than to give the afternoon crowd an opportunity to view it.

At Empress.

At the Empress, Elsie Ferguson appears in "The Marriage Prince." The story is dramatic and every situation has thrill and heart appeal. The story was written by Griswold Wheeler, the scenario by Eve Unsell and the director was Emile Chautard.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

That the Sunday night concert at the Methodist Church made quite a splash.

That the organ was a little headstrong once when it insisted on playing at the wrong time, but on the whole it behaved well.

That Parson Nuttall is on the right track in catering to the absolute need of the city by providing good music for the people.

That the people showed their appreciation last night in no uncertain manner.

That they were not sure whether or not they might applaud.

That in many city churches applause both of the words of the preacher and of good singing is common.

That the visit of Jennie Taggart is the next big event in musical circles.

That everyone seems agreed as to the need of a new school here but the mention of location almost leads to a scrap.

That no one ever realized how much wind there was at Acropolis Hill until it was proposed to build a school there.

That on the same authority there is no wind at Hays Cove Circle.

That viewing the question from this dizzy height it would appear that only those with children or those with intentions in that direction should be allowed to vote on the bylaw.

That real estate values should be eliminated in a question of this kind.

That apparently the need of this town is a school to educate adults just as much as for the education of children.

JENNIE TAGGART HERE ON SUNDAY

Arrangements Made to Have the Famous Singer Then—Full Concert Will also be Given.

At the meeting of the Prince Rupert Amateur Symphony Orchestra held last Saturday night it was decided to hold a concert in the Westholme Theatre next Sunday evening. The feature of the concert will be the singing of the world-famous solo soprano, Miss Jennie Taggart, sister of Frederic Taggart, who recently appeared here. The orchestra will also give a full recital interspersed with other numbers.

Miss Taggart will arrive here on the Prince Rupert next Saturday from Vancouver, where she is visiting her brother.
