UNEMPLOYED PATIENT

It is a matter for favorable comment that unemployed of Prince Rupert during the crisis that is now being felt have exhibited, possibly, a good deal more patience and a good deal more common sense than the workless in some saugstad. 433; Johanne E. Olsen other centres may have done. Fortunately enough, there 421; Thelma L. Nygaard, 379; N. Wilson, 384. has been nothing whatever in the way of disorders and, Curtis Urseth, 360. even at the mass meetings of unemployed, radical and seditious talk, which often is provoked under such circumstances and in such times as these, has been conspicuous by its absence.

The unemployed of Prince Rupert, as a matter of fact, have shown a distinct inclination to do the fair and reasonable thing in dealing with the authorities during the present crisis. Possibly, it is because of this that the unemployed of this city have won such general sympathy. Among all classes and interests of the city, there seems to be a real desire to do all possible to assist in relieving the emergency.

Happily, the unemployed through their own actions, have not done things in Prince Rupert, such as might have been done elsewhere, to provoke the authorities but, on the other hand, have acted in such a way as to command stelz, 360. the assistance and co-operation of all citizens insofar as it may be in their power to help.

PILING UP GOODWILL

At Ottawa and in other places there has been criticism, in recent days, of the ruinous competition on this coast be- R. Foster, 360; M. B. The summer season is the Union's harvest time. If one inor Tomlinson. should visit the wharf at the foot of Carrall Street on a Saturday afternoon or a Sunday morning or evening, at any time during July or August, he would think, from the Sargent, 373; J. ion crews are at work, busy, courteous, obliging, efficient. But the steamship company doesn't serve holiday-makers alone. It has a work-a-day clientele as well. Along the coast and on the various islands are scores of little settlements, ranchers, loggers, fishermen, canners and the like, 389. whose only connection with the outside world is furnished by the periodical steamship. GIRLS WANTED

To enter Contest for America's Most Beautiful Girl

The winner will be chosen during fair week in Prince Rupert and will get a free trip to Los Angeles and back and be entertained lavishly while there.

Entrants must sell 50 tickets to the Big Coronation Ball, the last day of the fair. Nothing else to do but look pretty. It's the chance of a lifetime.

The fair board at its recent meeting decided to enter a candidate in the International Beautequest at Los Angeles in connection with the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the city, when the most beautiful girl in America will be chosen.

The local candidate will be chosen at the time of the fall fair and immediately after her selection she will have to leave for the south to get there in time for the big California event. Her expenses going and coming will be paid by the Fair Board but while there she will be the guest of the Ocean Park Businessmen's Association, who are sponsoring the event. The attraction for the candidate is set forth in the following letter from the south.

"Your candidate will be met at the railway station, dock or airport by a committee representing the Ocean Park Businessmen's Association.

"She will be the guest of screen stars at various functions.

"She will be entertained by a reigning star of the screen at her home.

"She will be included in all parties listed as part of the program of the International Beautequest and La Fiesta de Los Angeles.

"She will occupy a position of honor in all gatherings including pageants, parades, spectacles, receptions and, in fact, all events planned for the International Beautequest and Los Angeles' great reception."

Candidates must be between the ages of 16 and 30, unmarried and of good character and the one going from Prince Rupert will be chosen in the following manner:

She or her sponsors must sell 50 tickets at $1 each for the big coronation ball to be staged on the last day of the fair in the exhibition building. For the one selling the most tickets a prize of $50 will be awarded.

She may enter without sponsors if she wishes but she must sell the tickets.

The candidates must attend the Exhibition every evening while it is in progress here. On the first night one selection will be made by competent judges. On the second night a second candidate will be chosen by another set of judges and on the third night a third candidate will be chosen by a third set of judges.

These three candidates will attend the coronation ball accompanied by the other candidates and at 9 o'clock, the final selection will be made. Two hours later the coronation will take place here and the following day the winner will be required to leave and travel as rapidly as possible by steamship, airplane and rail to Los Angeles.

Candidates from points around Prince Rupert may enter, such as Anyox, Ocean Falls, Smithers, Terrace, Stewart, Hazelton or other points and they will be required to sell 25 tickets to the coronation ball in order to qualify.

Candidates either in the city or out may be sponsored by organizations who may help them in disposing of tickets or otherwise in connection with the event.

Candidates or their sponsors should notify Secretary Vance of the Fair Association at as early a date as possible and as soon as the tickets are ready may commence disposing of them.
