Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism. Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

"Would Anyone be a social lion this way?"

A faded, battered hat is hardly respectable... yet no worse than dull, gray-looking shoes... your morning toilet should always include a "Nugget" shine—which waterproofs the shoes as it polishes.

Off for Vacation

Take The DAILY NEWS with you When Going on Summer Holidays

Nearly everybody likes to keep in touch with Prince Rupert when away for their holidays. The best way to do this is to order the paper sent during that time. If it is only for two weeks, the News is a welcome visitor and the mails during the summer months are carried almost daily to most points.

Recently a number of Scandinavians have given up the local fishing for the summer and gone on an extended visit to their former homes. In almost every case they order the Daily News sent them while they are away. Several subscribed for a year, others for shorter periods.

No time is too short for us to look after our patrons.
