Vote Tomorrow on School Bylaw.

Tomorrow is the day to vote on the school bylaw. It is the clear duty of every ratepayer to express himself or herself for or against the building and to give an expression regarding the site. We strongly advise that the bylaw be supported and that the site be Acropolis Hill. At the same time we are free to admit that there may be other honest opinions and that the other site may be chosen in preference. We cannot, however, think that considering the present need, the bylaw will be turned down.

The architect says that the cost of building at Hays Cove Circle will be many thousands of dollars more than at Acropolis Hill, largely on account of the poor foundation at the former site. That extra amount does not have anything to do with the playground. If a playground is added at Hays Cove, the cost will be twenty to thirty thousand dollars more than on the other site. That is as we are informed. It is up to everyone to find out the facts and to vote accordingly.

Hays Cove Circle is a suitable site for a school. We admit that, and eventually a high school should be built there. It is near the centre of the city and the best site for a high school. Just now it seems we can get the Acropolis Hill site. Perhaps later we may not be able to do so. From every viewpoint we think the place to build now is Acropolis Hill, but, as we said before, the voters are the judges. As long as they consider the best interests of the children, there will be no mistake made.

Famous Singer Coming on Sunday.

It is very seldom that a town this size can hope to hear a singer of the same standing in the world as Jennie Taggart. She is to be here on Sunday next and will sing at the Westholme Theatre.

The Symphony Orchestra would like to have arranged for the concert a week later, but owing to the Prince Rupert Musical Society having their big event on the day following it was thought inadvisable to do that. There is close co-operation between these two societies and the orchestra has magnanimously given the other the right of way.

Just what arrangements will be made to avoid the rush on Sunday evening we cannot tell. What we do know is that everyone will want to hear Jennie Taggart sing and that the theatre seats considerably less than a thousand people.

Value of Unity in Public Affairs.

There has been no time in the history of Prince Rupert when unity of effort has been so necessary as today. There need not be unity of opinion. That we cannot get, but there can be a general desire to co-operate at all times. Just now there are many problems to be tackled. Not only have we the annual event of choosing mayor and council, and the passing of the school bylaw, but we have confronting us the need of real unity of action in meeting the authorities at Ottawa.

There is no political campaign on just now, nor is there likely to be one for some time to come. The Ontario election laid the ghost of a possible election. That being the case what we have to do is to forget politics and get down to business. Colonel Peck is the present representative of this district and we can get behind him and use all our force to see that this city and district gets proper treatment.

"In unity is strength" is a very old saying, but it is as true today as ever it was, and it applies to the present situation. Let us get together, work together, and use our united effort to place this city on the map as a seaport worthy of the name.

Ministers Recommend

Rev. John Davidson, of Thuro, Que., writes:—"I have had considerable trouble with my throat, caused by public speaking in heated buildings and exposure to damp chilly atmosphere. I find PEPs very effective in soothing the throat."

Rev. Edward G. Heaven, Marksville, Ont., writes:—"I have used PEPs and find they give considerable relief to the throat. I have also found them very beneficial for colds."

PEPs is the direct treatment for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hoarseness, Laryngitis, and other ailments of the throat, chest, and lungs. As PEPs dissolve on the tongue, healing vapors are liberated which are breathed down direct to the sore places. Liquid cough mixture, etc., cannot be inhaled, they go to the stomach not the lungs. PEPs get to the seat of the trouble direct.

PEPs are sold only in tin boxes. All druggists and stores 50c. box, 3 boxes $1.25.
