

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

DISTRICT NEWS

J. Bruce Johnstone has closed up the Lakelse Hotel for the winter and is now in charge of Geo. Little's lumber yard at Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Knut Olsen expect to leave for California in the course of a few days to spend the winter.

C. P. Warwick, the unfortunate workman in the Terrace mill who received such serious injuries to his skull in a recent planer accident, is reported to be making a very slow recovery. Several inches of his skull bone were broken entirely and his condition is indeed serious.

Geo. Clothier, government mining engineer, is spending a few days in the district looking over some mining prospects.

W. J. Pitman is visiting this place. Mrs. Pitman has been here for several months staying with Mrs. Lanfeer and Miss French.

There were three weeks of good sleighing weather here a short time ago but last week the rains came and washed the snow entirely away so that the ground is entirely clear again. The local Indians are very optimistic. They say that the worst of the winter is already over and that the season from now on may be expected to be pretty open.

TELKWA

Mark Hanna has sold his ranch to E. Woodward.

Report around this place says that a new sawmill is to be erected here for operation next summer.

Jack McNeill has just returned from Alberta where he was buying horses. He brought back a carload of equines for use in the tie camp at Perow.

Oliver Wall, manager of the Royal Bank, has moved with his staff to the new residential quarters over the bank.

Ira Short and D. McLean have taken a lease on the Reigle block and will operate a poolroom there in conjunction with a barber shop.

The old bar in the hotel which in the days when booze was unrestricted has now given away to the entertainment under prohibition and has been changed into a billiard room.

SMITHERS

F. W. Ulrich left for Wichita, Texas, last week and will return to Smithers in the spring.

Rev. W. Deans, who has served three years in France, has arrived to take the Methodist Church pulpit in succession to Rev. James Evans.

Under the management of W. J. O'Neill the Smithers electric light plant is again in operation and the streets are lighted up for the winter. The plant has been out of commission for a year.

The residence of Sandy Gazely was completely destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning. Fortunately, the volunteer fire brigade were able to save the most of the furniture.

HAZELTON

The Flatiron Building is being remodelled to accommodate the offices and garage of Jas. McKay.

Following the visit of General J. W. Stewart and associates to the Silver Standard mine, it has been decided to start the mill at once and remodel the power plant. Underground development is to be carried on in the mine all winter.

Arrangements are under way for a masquerade ball at Christmas time.

C. W. Dawson has arrived in New Hazelton and is remodeling the Larkworthy store preparatory to opening up in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harris are spending the winter in Vancouver, having left last Sunday for that place.

The cold snap of two weeks ago has been followed by warm rains, with the result that the snow is gone in places and there have been slides at various points in the Bulkley Canon.
