

BEAVERS TAKE FIRST BASKETBALL GAME

Beat Cubs in First Match of the League by Score of 2 to 2.

The opening game in the Junior Basketball League played last night at the Exhibition Hall between the Beavers and the Cubs proved to be a win for the Beavers. The game was a fast one and the final score of 3 to 2 is an indication of how evenly matched were the teams.

For the Beavers Adolphe Francis scored two of the points and Ted Halverson dropped one into the basket from a penalty. For the losers Berryman did the scoring.

The game was refereed by Ed. Smith who kept the players from getting too much latitude. At the conclusion the winning team was presented with a fine box of chocolates donated by Miss Johnson, which the boys much appreciated.

There are five teams in the junior league—the Beavers, Cubs, Drydocks, Catholics, and Junior Colts. Next week the Drydocks will play the Catholics.

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

That trouble has been "bruin" for a long time in Russia.

That while Japan is worried over Kolchak's retreat she is not worrying as much as Kolchak.

That while someone sold dope from the drug store on Saturday night others went to church on Sunday night.

That "The Heart of Humanity" is a real picture.

That the only thing that seems to improve the streets is the frost.

That while the mud will not scrape off, it is still capable of freezing on.

That the new school will surely be built, but where?

That it seems like Aeropolis Hill and a playground or Hays Cove Circle and no playground.

That "no play" makes every Johnnie a dull boy.

That we want no race of dulars in Rupert.

That it is to be hoped everyone will turn out to vote tomorrow.

That if the voters allow themselves to be guided by common sense they will have a school and it will be rightly placed.

That the ratepayers are the judges and not the newspapers.
