Buy in Prince Rupert
And Save Your Money.

Buy in Prince Rupert. That is the way to save. Reports are coming in continually from all parts of the extortionate prices asked for goods. We sometimes take exception to prices here but when we get away we find the prices higher. In nearly all staple lines this is true.

There is another good reason for purchasing at home. If we have any civic pride, any desire to see the place prosper we must support our own merchants. There is plenty of choice among them. If there are any we do not like, we can cross the road and buy at the other place. To send money away out of the province, however, means that it is gone for ever. It means that our local merchants are handicapped, that the local employees find themselves with too little to do and that, as a rule, we get no better value and nothing like such good service as in our own city and province.

Shop Early and Avoid the Rush.

"Shop early" is a good rule to remember. The Christmas rush is coming and it will be difficult to secure the attention that we all like when we go shopping. The Christmas goods will be culled over and the early shopper will get the best. The time to purchase Christmas presents is within the next week or two.

Those who wish to send presents to the Old Country should get them away this week, if possible. After that there is a risk that they may arrive late. The correct thing is to send them so that they will arrive as near Christmas Day as possible. The mail service is not as good as it used to be and early mailing should be the rule.

Labor Organizing in United States.

Apparently labor has been slow in organizing politically in the United States. In Australia a labor party was formed many years ago that eventually captured the reins of government and administered the affairs of the country. In England there have been labor parties for a number of years with a number of representatives in Parliament and the party is now very prominent there. In Canada there have been little bursts of enthusiasm from time to time, but in the United States there has never been anything like a general movement. It will be interesting to notice now whether the newly formed party amounts to anything.

We are strongly of opinion that Labor should be well represented in the political life of the country and that, if it can do so, it should take its turn in administering the affairs of the country. We believe that the labor leaders of the country will act sanely if given the power. Nothing sobs a man or a party like responsibility.

Since Taking "Fruit-a-lives"

103 CHURCH ST., MONTREAL.
"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good.

Then I began to use "Fruit-a-lives", and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-lives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

GALE WRECKED SIX
BOATS AT SKIDEGATE

Rancher from Tiell River Says it Was Worst He had Ever Experienced.

E. S. Richardson, a Moresby Island rancher, arrived in town yesterday afternoon by the Prince John. Mr. Richardson is in the city buying supplies for his farm at Tiell. He states that the wind of last Thursday was felt with great force over on the islands. Though there was little damage ashore there were no less than six gasoline boats wrecked in the vicinity of Skidegate. It was, probably, the worst storm experienced in recent years over there. Mr. Richardson will return to the Islands on Sunday.

Sport Briefs

Joe Beckett, the English heavy-weight champion, is a 10 to 7 favorite over George Carpentier, of France, for their coming bout.

Pitcher Hod. Eller, of the Champion Cincinnati Reds, is selling automobiles in Champaign, Ill., during the off season.

Tex. Rickard now talks of matching Jess Willard with Fred. Fulton preparatory to a second bout with Jack Dempsey. Rickard says that Willard is anxious and quite able to stage a come-back to the world's title.

The famous Newcastle United football club is to make a trans-Canada tour next summer. They will stop at more important cities such as Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, taking on the best those cities have to offer.
