CHARGE THAT O.B.U. BEING FINANCED BY THE INTERNATIONALS

To discover to just what extent funds of the legitimate international labor organizations are seeping through to the coffers of the One Big Union for the advancement of their propaganda which is opposed to that of the international unions, is to be the object of an investigation by the executive of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council.

A. S. Wells, of Vancouver, of the B. C. section of the Defence Committee for the Winnipeg strike leaders now on trial, sent a letter to the Victoria Council explaining the plan of raising a "Liberty Bond" issue of $75,000 for the Winnipeg defence. Under this scheme, Eastern Canada is expected to contribute $50,000 and the four Western Provinces $25,000. But of this $25,000, British Columbia is set down for $20,000.

Christian Sivertz, secretary, wanted to know why British Columbia should be allotted $20,000 out of the $25,000 for the whole of the Western Provinces.

Opposes Propaganda.

E. S. Woodward, president, said he was in favor of supplying money for the defence of the Winnipeg men and for the support of their families while the breadwinners were held in jail. But he wanted to know whether it was proper when these men were allowed out on bail and were travelling through the country propagandizing for the One Big Union that they should carry on this work on funds supplied by international organizations.

"As a matter of fact I believe this O. B. U. propaganda is thus being actually financed by the international unions," said Mr. Woodward. "This and similar information the Victoria Council is entitled to receive before further subscriptions are asked for." The matter will be investigated.

Alex. Munro, chief engineer of the Prince Rupert, returned here last night on the train after having spent three months visiting in Scotland. Mrs. Munro is still in the Old Country.

Mrs. Phil McDonald left on the Princess Mary yesterday afternoon for a few months' visit in Iowa, her home state.

 IN THE LETTER BOX  WHY UNDESIRABLE

To the Editor,—

I notice that one of the arguments in favor of the change in school site is that the Acropolis overlooks an "undesirable locality." Apart from all questions of the erection of a school, why should it be necessary for any part of our city to overlook an "undesirable locality." Two efficient morality officers could make things so unhappy, not only for the harpies themselves but also for their visitors, that such a locality could be reformed in a month.
