'Atomic Force' Science Church

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved By Atomic Force?" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Prince George Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday.

One of the Scriptural texts centained in the lesson-sermon was, "The heavens are thine, the earth ded them." (Psalms 89:11).

Three Hundred Children in Attendance at Affair Staged Yesterday Afternoon

three hundred children and numerous parents were in attendance at the Moose Christmas Tree which proved to be a very jolly affair.

Of course, the feature of the proceedings was the visit of Santa Claus (J. Jeans) who distributed gifts and sweets to all the children in attendance.

During the proceedings musical selections were played by Mrs. J. S. Black and Bert Cameron.

The committee in charge of the Christmas tree consisted of R. Long, chairman, Ted Rorvik, J. Jeans, Mrs. Percy Cameron, Mrs. F. M. Crosby, Mrs. H. Skattebol and Mrs. D. C. Schubert.

Aboard Flagship MATINEE AT

Groceries to Be Taken to Pay For Entry Instead of Money

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a big time at the Capitol Theatre. The young people of the city have been invited to attend a matinee and to bring instead of money such groceries as may be available. Some will take tea, sugar, vegetables. Christmas goods, flour biscuits, cheese, butter, bacon, lard or one of a hundred other articles. The goods received will be all used for Christmas relief purposes.

Most of the young people will want to take part in the fun of doing something for the people who have not the means to celebrate Christmas as they would like.
