SASKATCHEWAN TOWNS WRECKED; BIG BLOW LAST NIGHT

Estevan and Arcola Swept By Hurricane And One Life Taken

Many Buildings Were Unroofed and Trestle Bridge Was Demolished—Man Was Killed By Flying Timber

ESTEVAN, Sask., Aug. 27:—When a tornado struck this town and district last night buildings were wrecked, and Robert Henderson of Calgary, aged 50, a bridge contractor, was instantly killed by being struck on the head by a flying timber. Two other persons were injured while many residents were cut by flying glass from store fronts and windows.

Many buildings were unroofed and a Canadian Pacific Railway trestle bridge near here was demolished. The town of Arcola was also swept by the hurricane which lasted about twenty minutes.

DO-X IN NEW YORK

Giant German Flying Boat Due at Gotham at Noon Today

NEW YORK, Aug. 27:—The giant German flying boat DO-X was scheduled to arrive at New York at noon today from Miami, Fla.

Plans were for the machine to land first on the lower harbor and discharge her passengers before proceeding to Glen H. Curtiss airport on Long Island to find a mooring place.

The DO-X left Germany on November 5 and had an eventful trip here via West Africa, South America and the West Indies.

Presentation To Alex MacDonald

Popular Executive and Member Is Honored By Yacht Club on Eve of Departure

On behalf of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club, the executive last night presented Alex MacDonald, past president, on the eve of his departure from the city, with a handsome club bag. The presentation was made by Hubert Ward, president of the club, who made suitable remarks, voicing the club's regret at the departure of so popular a member and valuable executive. The honor was suitably acknowledged by the recipient.

Others present at the ceremony were Alex McRae, Yacht Club secretary, R. E. Benson and C. G. Minns, members of the executive. Mr. MacDonald is leaving with his wife and family for Winnipeg to reside.

MADE GOOD SHOWING AGAINST CHAMPION
Lieut.-Col. S. P. McMordie of this city made a good showing against A. S. Milne of Vancouver, ex-Davis Cup player and former veteran champion of Canada, in a tennis match at the Prince Rupert Tennis Club courts yesterday. The score was 5 to 3 for Milne. The latter was in the city for a few hours while on his way south after a trip to Skagway and asked for a match while here.

PRESIDENT PAYS VISIT

Important Gathering Last Night of Local Rebekah Lodge With Oddfellows as Guests

Mrs. G. V. Turvey of Chilliwack, President of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia, paid an official visit to the local lodge last night, the lodge meeting being followed by a social and dance to which the Oddfellows were invited. The party proved a very enjoyable one for all present.

Mrs. Turvey made an appropriate address, the proceedings being presided over by Mrs. S. L. Peachy, noble grand. Among those making speeches were Mrs. J. E. Boddie, district deputy president, and J. E. Boddie, district deputy grand master of the Oddfellows.

During the evening the presentation was made to Mrs. Turvey by Mrs. Boddie, on behalf of the lodge, of a handsome set of souvenir spoons.

In view of his recent wedding, Peter Solem, prominent Oddfellow and helper of the Rebekahs, was presented with a beautiful silver dish. The presentation was made on behalf of the Rebekahs by Mrs. S. V. Cox.

Music for dancing was provided by the Oddfellows' Orchestra and J. E. Boddie was master of ceremonies. Mrs. S. V. Cox was convener of the committee in charge. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Turvey left on this morning's train for Terrace. Travelling via Jasper Park and Kamloops on her return south, she will stop at various points en route to pay official visits.

IS LAID TO REST

Funeral Today of Mrs. Anna Johnson, Pioneer Resident of This City

The funeral of the late Mrs. Anna Johnson, pioneer Scandinavian resident of this city, whose death occurred earlier in the week, took place this afternoon from the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers to Fairview Cemetery where interment was made.

There was a large congregation of old friends of deceased, who was very well known, present to pay final tributes of respect to her memory. Rev. John H. Hanson, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, officiated and Peter Lien presided at the organ for the hymns. Two duets were sung by Mrs. J. H. Hanson and Mrs. Carl Dybbavn. "Nearer My God to Thee" and "We Shall Meet By and By."

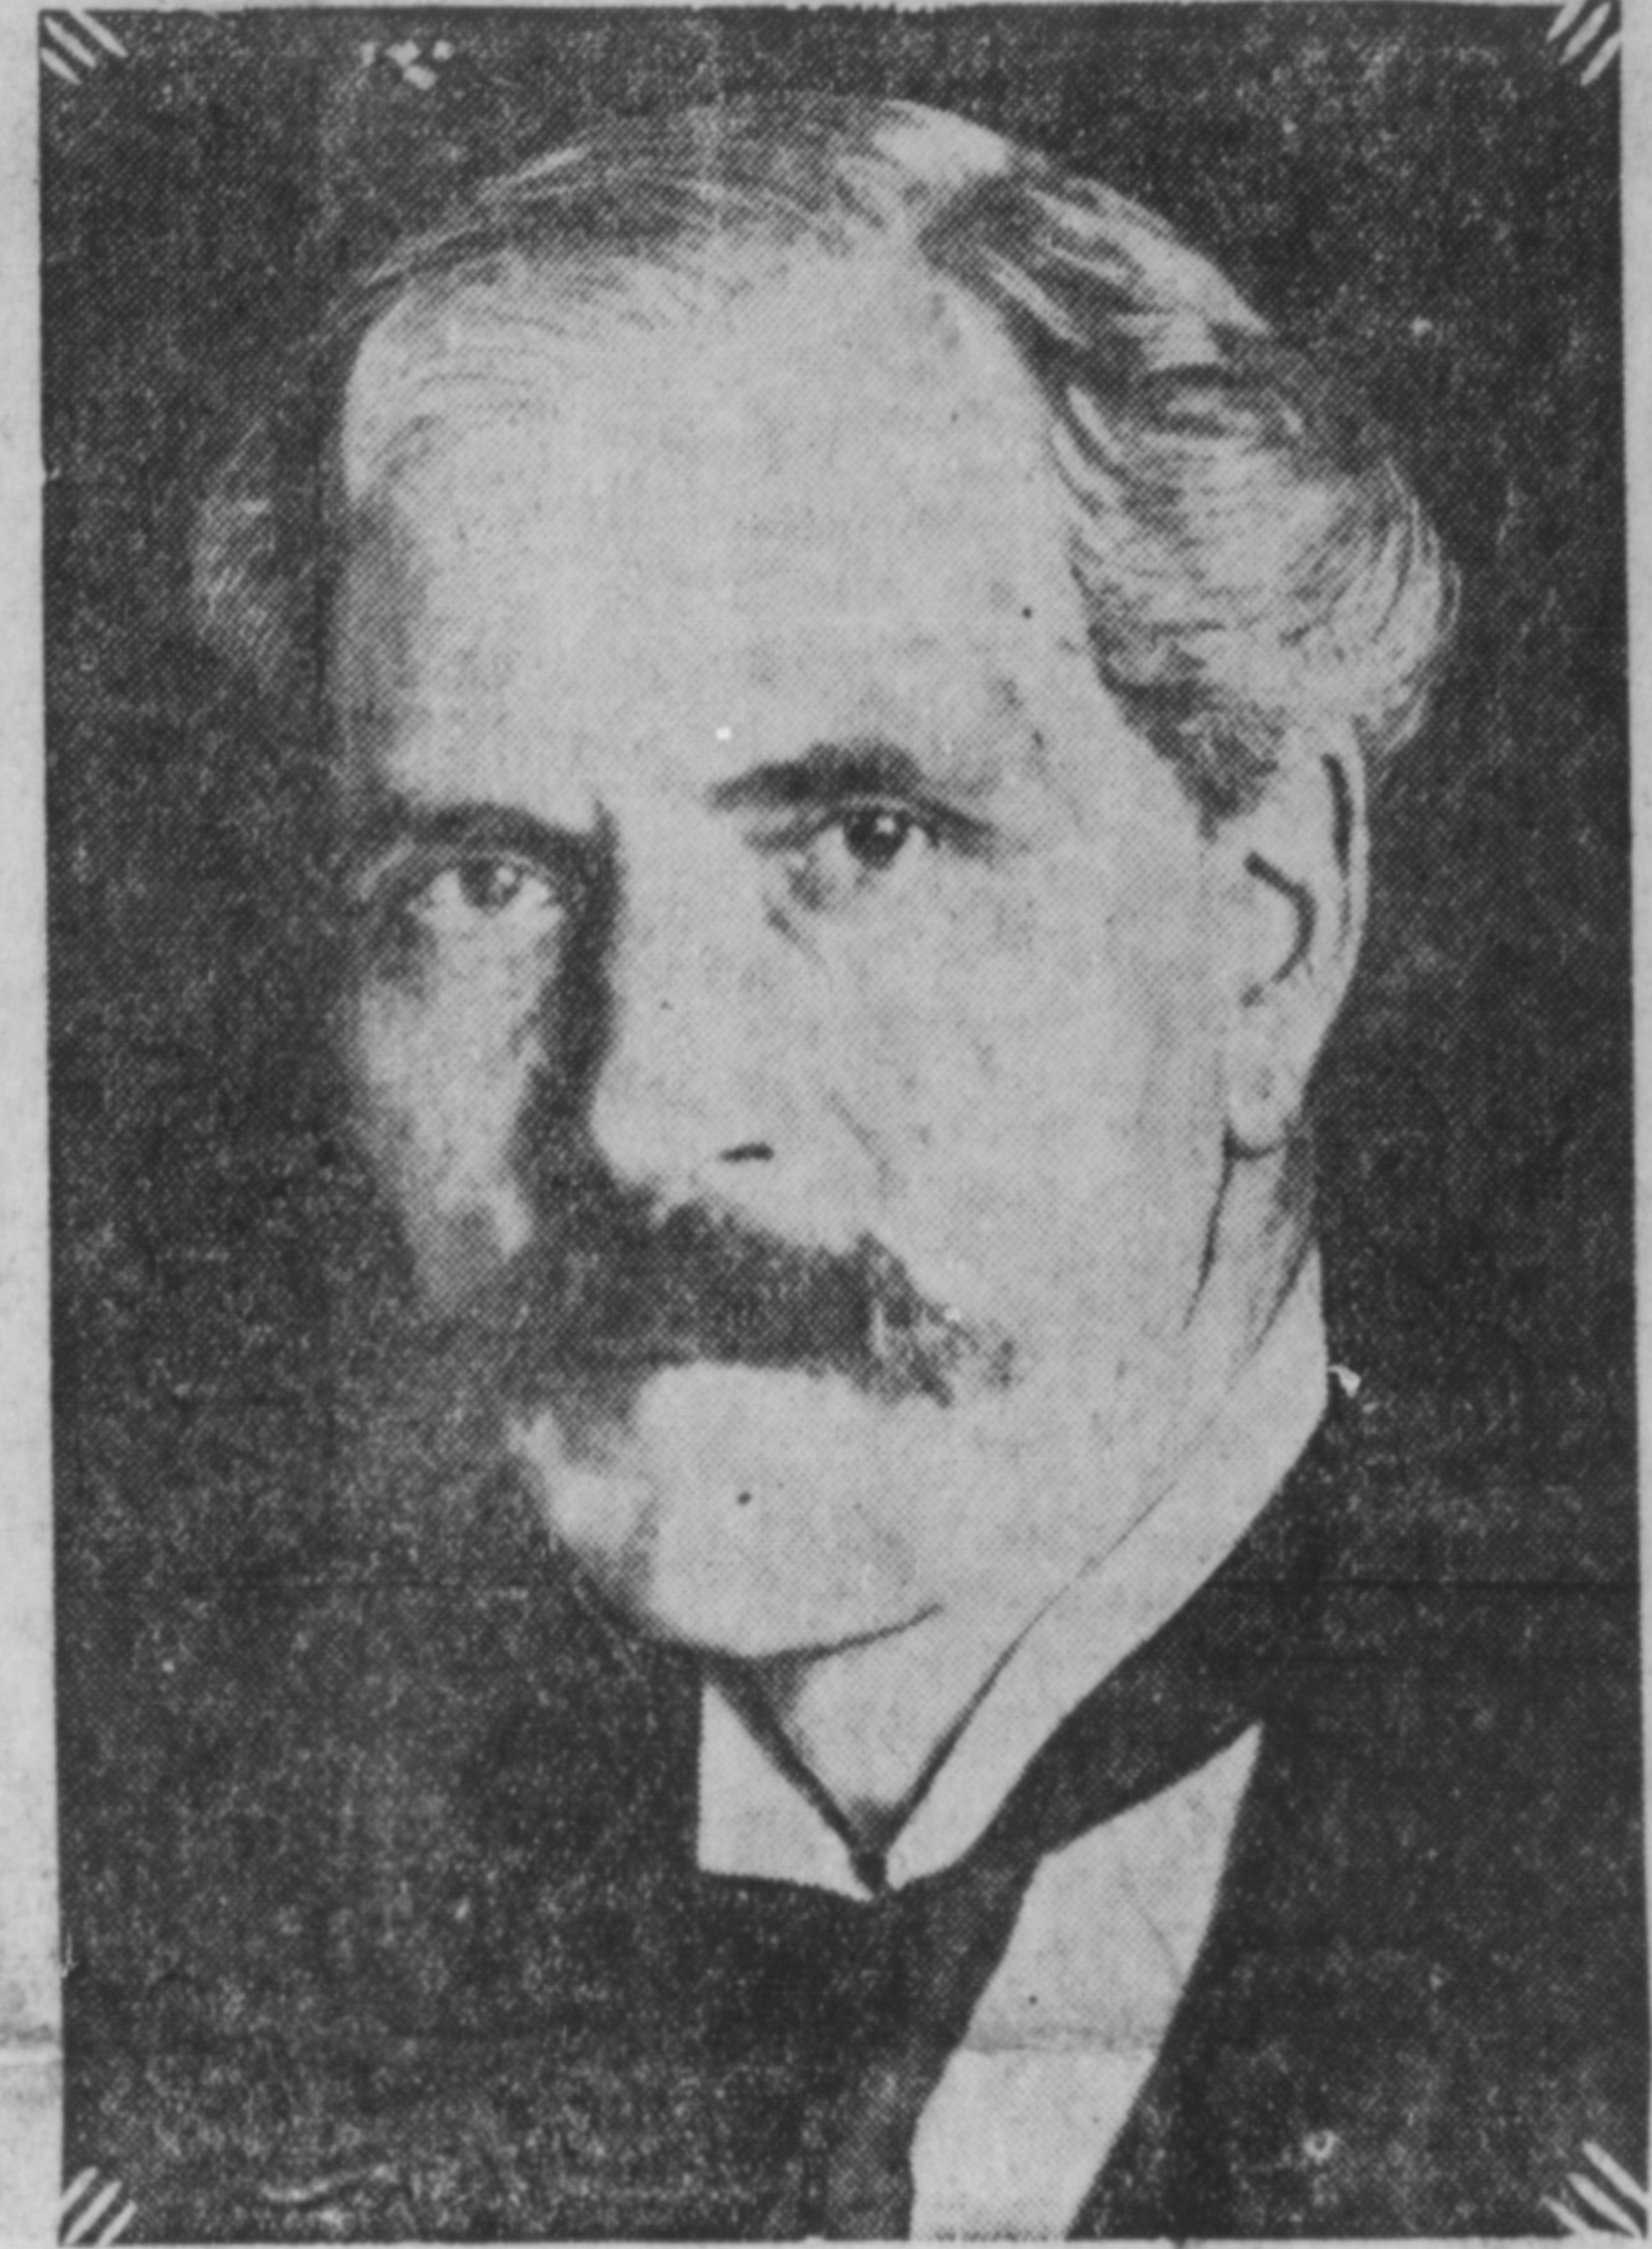

Palbearers were John Bergman, K. Hallberg, O. A. Johnson, Oscar Larson, George Fritz and C. E. Johnson, all old friends of deceased. There were many floral tributes, acknowledgement of which will be made tomorrow.

Prominent Japanese Exporter Pleased With Island Timber; Is Willing to Send It Over

K. Nakata, one of Seattle's most prominent exporters of lumber, logs and wheat, passed through the city aboard the steamer Prince Charles today after a week's visit on the Queen Charlotte Islands to inspect timber stands and investigate export possibilities. Mr. Nakata was accompanied on the island trip by John R. Morgan, well known pioneer logging operator.

Mr. Nakata was greatly impressed with the excellence of the timber and declared that he was willing to do business if the necessary shipping arrangements could be made permitting of the taking of such cargo from here. Mr. Nakata, however, realized that there were difficulties. There should be some means though of surmounting these, he felt.

Mr. Nakata would have remained longer on the islands only he was called to Seattle on account of business. He expects to be back in the district soon.

Trades Union Congress and Parliament Labor Party Express Censure

Charge That "Private Banking Interests" Precipitated Financial Crisis and Ensuing Charge of Administration in Great Britain

LONDON, Aug. 27:—Organized labor in Great Britain has definitely repudiated Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald's new national government. Today a joint manifesto was issued by the Trades Union Congress and the Parliamentary Labor party charged that "private banking interests" had precipitated Great Britain's financial crisis and change of government.

The next development will, it is expected, be the expulsion of Premier MacDonald from the official Labor Party.

Board Had Meeting Last Night and Everything is Now in Readiness

Mayor to Open

Hall Obtained For Indian Club Room Purposes During Week

The Fair Board, at its meeting last night, decided to invite Mayor Cyril H. Orme to formally open the Prince Rupert Exhibition next Tuesday evening.

The board made a final check-up of arrangements for the big annual event and everything is now in readiness for a successful show with the accompanying entertainment and festivities. Certain odd jobs at the building were ordered to be attended to at once.

Balagno's orchestra was engaged to play for the coronation ball.

The services of Mrs. E. P. Jenner, formerly home economics teacher in the local schools, have been obtained to judge the fancy work and cooking at the Exhibition.

Arrangements were reported complete for the use of the Emad Hall during the entire week as a headquarters and club room for native visitors for the fair. The hall will be open for this purpose from Monday to Saturday inclusive.
