DOMINION OF CANADA

Income Tax Returns Due April 30th

All persons residing, employed or carrying on business in Canada, are liable to a tax on income, subject to the following exemptions:

> (a) $3,000 in the case of a married person or householder, or any other person who has dependent upon him any of the following persons:

- (i) a parent or grandparent;
- (ii) a daughter or sister;
- (iii) a son or brother under 21 years of age or incapable of self-support on account of mental or physical infirmity.

(b) $1,500 in the case of other persons.

(c) $500 for each child under 21 years of age who is dependent upon the taxpayer for support, or if 21 years of age or over, is incapable of self-support on account of mental or physical infirmity.

(d) $500 for each parent, grandparent, brother or sister, incapable of self-support on account of mental or physical infirmity, who is dependent upon the taxpayer for support (unless otherwise provided for in the Act.)

(e) $2,000 for corporations.

NOTE—Where the husband and wife each have a separate income in excess of $1,500, then each shall receive, not $3,000 exemption, but $1,500 exemption.

THERE ARE THREE DIFFERENT FORMS AS FOLLOWS:

Form T1 For Individuals other than Farmers and Ranchers.

Form T1A For Farmers and Ranchers only. Form T2 For Corporations and Joint Stock Companies.

RETURNS ARE DUE APRIL 30th, 1931, REPORTING INCOME FOR 1930

Failure to file return renders the taxpayer liable to a penalty of five per centum of the amount of the tax payable with a maximum penalty of $500.00.

Cheques must be made payable to the Receiver General of Canada, and must have been previously accepted and marked by the bank on which drawn. Taxpayers are warned not to send bills or loose change in envelopes. Always use Cheques, Express Orders, Bank Money Orders, Postal Notes, Postal Money Orders, etc.
