PROVINCE AND DOMINION

Tomorrow Hon. R. W. Bruhn will be in Ottawa to back up the efforts of the minister of finance in trying to convince the federal government that British Columbia needs special consideration in the matter of relief work. Doubtless he will tell the members of the Ottawa government how the people from the prairies drift toward the coast because of the milder climate and that the western province has not yet benefitted to any appreciable extent from the protection and monetary depreciation which it is claimed is helping to build up industries in the east.

When it is decided just what help B. C. is to get, it is expected that many of the men will be put to work once more. In the meantime all the road camps are idle although the men are being kept there at the public expense.

MANY GOOD EXAMPLES

While some manufacturers have been drawing in and helping to accentuate the depression in Canada and the United States, others have been plunging forward with faith, building for the future.

A few days ago we published an interview telling of a Canadian firm that was building factories both in Winnipeg and Regina this year. Today we hear that the Anheuser-Busch people of St. Louis have just completed a two million dollar yeast plant in New Jersey, the largest of its kind in the world.

This is the sort of action that gives us all faith in the future of business on this continent.

ANOTHER GUESS

During the past two years many people have been trying to figure out what caused the world depression. A local professional man, who poses as somewhat of an economist, and who, at any rate, has given a good deal of thought to world conditions, declares that the whole world slump was caused by the advent of a labor government in Great Britain. He says that London is the financial and trade centre of the world and, the moment it was announced that Britain was to be in the hands of the socialists, Europe was paralyzed and United States, depending on Europe for its sustenance, at once felt the reflex. Gradually things went from bad to worse and then to the very brink of Hades until the people of Britain repented of the sin that they had committed and once more elected a Conservative government. Even before the election when it seemed sure what action they were about to take, there was an improvement. Since the election the improvement has been marked and throughout Europe and United States confidence has been restored and by spring the wheels of trade will all be turning and the mills of industry grinding out prosperity.

If anyone has a better story to tell than this, let us hear it. Keep it down to a reasonable length and we shall be glad to publish it.

Mrs. E. Lipsett Is Guest of Honor At Evening Event

Recently returned from Vienna where she attended the Rotary International convention, and after an extended trip abroad, Mrs. Edward Lipsett was guest of honor on Friday evening, when members of the Pacific Northwest Academy of Arts, Vancouver branch, entertained for her and for the noted London author and playwright, Miss Peggy Webling, at the charming apartment in the Devonshire of Mrs. J. W. Weart.

Hallowe'en motifs were used for decoration on the prettily appointed table, which was centred with a great silver bowl filled with bronzy-colored button chrysanthemums and lighted with tall orange tapers set in silver sconces. Mrs. Blanche E. Holt Murison and Mrs. Alice Winlow presided at the urns. Orange and gold chrysanthemums had also been arranged in lovely profusion about the other rooms for the occasion.

Introduced by the president, Mrs. Murison, Mrs. Lipsett gave an address of great interest on Copenhagen, in which she described not only its art and architecture, but also its present social and economic aspects, and Mr. Lipsett later gave a brief but interesting account of the Rotary convention in Vienna.

Those present also included Dr. and Mrs. Daniel McLellan, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. George Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. George Galvin, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schooley, Miss Rice, Miss Alice E. Winlow, Miss Fisher, Miss MacHaffie, Miss Jessie McDonald, Mrs. Cicely Page, Mrs. Mayo Bush, Stephen Goulder, Mrs. G. T. Riley, J. W. Weart, Mrs. Virginia Cummings, Mrs. W. B. Lindsay, Mrs. Cox Noble and many others.—Vancouver Province.

ROTARY HAS TAKEN SHIP FOR ALASKA

Steamship Chartered Already for Big Excursion North Next Year From Seattle

KETCHIKAN, Nov. 5.—The steamship Alaska has been chartered and a whole shipload of Rotarians will make the round trip to Alaska after the 1932 convention of Rotary International, to be held at Seattle June 20 to 24, according to letters read at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club of Ketchikan.

The members of the Rotary club here will be invited aboard the vessel while it is in port and will hold their regular meeting on board ship at that time. The Rotarians on the vessel will be principally from the eastern states. The trip has been arranged by Hart L. Seely, formerly chairman of the "on to Vienna" committee of Rotary International.

Many other Rotarians from all over the world will very likely make the trip to Alaska after the convention, and it is hoped that before the big event at least one more club can be organized in Alaska to keep the lone Ketchikan club company in making preparations for their welcome.

The Seattle club is making big preparations to make next year's convention the biggest and best of the 25 already held and the biggest event in the convention history of Seattle.

INDIANS AND RELIEF

Editor, Daily News:—

An impression prevails among the public at large that all Indians are in receipt of relief from the Indian Department. It is to correct this impression that I am writing on behalf of the Port Simpson Council. Relief is extended by the department in cases of aged and absolutely destitute natives.

The local agent of the department is endeavoring to have the Indian Department establish relief work at the various villages to assist all of the Indian population who have felt the general depression and to this end a delegation from the council met Mr. Collison and were very favorably received.

I hope that this will correct the impression that all of the Indians are getting relief, and thanking you for making this matter public.

I am yours truly,

E. F. DUDOWARD,
Chief Councillor.

Port Simpson, B.C.

APPEAL IN VANCOUVER

Karl Fredericks to Make His Fight Against Death Sentence on November 16

The appeal of Karl Fredericks, under sentence of death for the murder of Max Westphal and Herman Peters near Tremblur Lake in June of last year, will not be reversed to Victoria as was at first intended but, instead, will be heard by the British Columbia Court of Appeal in Vancouver on November 16.

The appeal has been entered on behalf of Fredericks by the John Howard Society which was approached by the chaplain of Okalla Prison to whom Fredericks expressed a wish to appeal from his conviction.

Fredericks was convicted at the fall session of the Supreme Court Assize in Prince George and December 3 was set as the date of execution.
