DAILY EDITION. Thursday, Nov. 27, 1919.

School Site Gets Very Large Majority.

The people of Prince Rupert have done a very wise thing in passing the school bylaw. The building is badly needed and it is to be hoped that an effort will be made to commence work on it as soon as possible. The matter of site was somewhat of a detail. While we are just as much as ever of opinion that Acropolis Hill was the best place for the building, the people, and especially the parents of the children, should be the best judges of what they want. We hope, however, that an effort will be made to level a playground there at once and not leave it for a year or two. The News is not interested in location, particularly, but it is interested in play. "Give the children a chance" is our motto.

Delegation off To the Capital.

A delegation is to go to Ottawa to set before the ministers the claims of Prince Rupert as a port, as a fishing centre and as a manufacturing town. Two delegates have already been chosen by the Board of Trade and the city is asked to appoint a third.

This is a time when it would be most unwise to let our claims go by default. We should certainly back up our member to the fullest extent possible in seeing that we get fair play. A policy is now being evolved in regard to the operation of the railways and steamship services. Prince Rupert must see that she gets proper service. She must insist that the promises made by the G. T. P. when the townsite lots were sold, are made good now that the government has taken over the railway and the remainder of the townsite lands.

Dominion Government Owns the Foreshore.

It must be remembered now that the Dominion Government owns a large part of the foreshore and much of the townsite, that it is to them we must look for help in developing the city and port and in making the large waterfront of value to the people of the city and country. It is possible now that we shall be able to get help from them to build the Morse Creek bridge. We have to get on intimate terms with the Dominion Government and there seems to be no better way of doing that than by sending an occasional delegation to Ottawa. The cost would be very small compared with the benefits to be gained.

Johnson Appointment Very Satisfactory.

The appointment of Capt. Barney Johnson as superintendent of the B. C. Pilotage Authority will be most satisfactory to this port. Capt. Johnson knows the place well and is in sympathy with our needs and aspirations. This port being included in his jurisdiction, we can be sure that we shall get fair play, insofar as he is concerned. He is a capable man and he has earned everything that is coming to him through his services to the Empire during the war.
